Lessons from a Translingual Romance Jieun Kiaer, Hyejeong Ahn, 2023-07-12 Intercultural couples ICs often face unique challenges that go unnoticed This book delves into the experiences of 20 ICs living in Singapore and explores the complexity of their experiences through the lens of translanguaging It shows how ICs mix language and culture in a borderless manner not only between spouses but also with their wider families Additionally the authors examine the significance of technological advancements which have transformed ICs experiences over the past decade In particular parents in law pose a significant challenge for Asian Western couples as the relationship with them in Asia differs from that in the West Each couple's unique shared culture and language transcends the borders of nation states requiring exchange sharing negotiation and adaptation This book provides an easy to read holistic exploration of the issues faced by ICs offering insight into overlooked aspects such as location in laws and technology Interpersonal Positioning in English as a Lingua Franca Interactions Svtlana Klötzl, Birgit Swoboda, 2019-11-28 This book offers a critical reflection on interpersonal positioning across both large and small scale contexts and highlights the multi faceted nature of intercultural communication in today's global world The volume establishes positioning primarily as the negotiation of interpersonal relationships and draws on concepts from across disciplines by way of reappraisal before applying them to two specific domains MMORPGs Massively Multiplayer Online Role Playing Games and private ELF couple interaction While acknowledging and showcasing the unique features of positioning in these two contexts Klötzl and Swoboda point to their commonalities by looking at how language and specifically English is used as a communicative resource in lingua franca situations The book also identifies new directions for future methodological innovations in that it demonstrates how the same interaction can be looked at in methodologically different ways and how the authors own positions projected on to such interaction create an integrated tri partite perspective on the two domains Shedding light on interpersonal positioning in different contexts and in turn on global communication more generally this book will be of particular interest to students and researchers in discourse analysis pragmatics computer mediated communication sociolinguistics and applied linguistics Indian Arranged Marriages Tulika Jaiswal, 2014-04-24 Despite the fact that more than 80% of cultures practice varying degrees of arranged marriage scholars have thus far concentrated exclusively on American and European cultures from choice marriages not yet fully exploring the psychology of arranged marriages India is a prominent South Asian nation that continues to retain the historical tradition of arranged marriages in the 21st century This book therefore provides a timely addition to marital research as it offers a comprehensive and systematic psychological examination on Indian arranged marriages This book explores the role of individual interactional contextual and cultural factors in predicting marital satisfaction in individuals who were in arranged marriages and living in India The discussion is drawn from a survey collecting data from individuals married through the arranged marriage system in India In light of this empirical study the book considers the cross cultural applicability of

Western findings and proposes some key methodological and clinical considerations for examining marital relationships in Indian arranged marriages Providing useful much needed scholarly insight on arranged marriages and widening the research conceptualization of marriage this book will be of particular interest to scholars of Social Psychology Sociology Marital and Cross cultural studies

Alhacen's Theory of Visual Perception Alhazen,A. Mark Smith,2001 Sometime between 1028 and 1038 Ibn al Haytham completed his monumental optical synthesis Kitab al Manazir Book of Optics By no later than 1200 and perhaps somewhat earlier this treatise appeared in Latin under the title De aspectibus In that form it was attributed to a certain Alhacen These differences in title and authorial designation are indicative of the profound differences between the two versions Arabic and Latin of the treatise In many ways in fact they can be regarded not simply as different versions of the same work but as different works in their own right Accordingly the Arab author Ibn al Haytham and his Latin incarnation Alhacen represent two distinct sometimes even conflicting interpretive voices And the same holds for their respective texts To complicate matters Alhacen does not represent a single interpretive voice There were at least two translators at work on the Latin text one of them adhering faithfully to the Arabic original the other content with distilling even paraphrasing the Arabic original Consequently the Latin text presents not one but at least two faces to the reader This two volume critical edition represents fourteen years of work on Dr Smith s part Awarded the 2001 J F Lewis Award

The Gift of Epilepsy Anthony Fontana,2013-05-13 My work focuses on my lifelong struggle with the still unsolved mystery of the chronic illness of epilepsy It has affected approximately one percent of the worlds population including many historic figures What I felt was an incessant need to discover what my problem really was by reading a wide range of medical psychological and philosophical material and then finding myself delving into an endless source of alternative means to deal with it coming from the Eastern cultures The most powerful discovery that my search revealed was that this illness for me was not a setback but actually a stimulus to truly finding my present state of health happiness and wisdom As I recalled my meaningful life issues via writing my memoirs and applied the newly discovered means of dealing with them it opened up a new positive perspective that was re enforced by the many ideas encountered in my reading Primarily we all have some problem to deal with in our daily and lifetime endeavors I feel we all need to come to the realization that our difficulty be it physical mental social or even spiritual has within it a spark that can ignite an opportunity to view it more clearly Whatever the problem its presence is there to stop us in our tracks for a moment in order to pull back from the overpowering routines of our everyday lives and awaken to another level of vision The most powerful result of all my reading was simply discovering that my illness was not a hindrance but rather a guide to my self improvement I realized that accepting it for what it was and being grateful for it and all my other gifts gave me the inspiration to share my experience with others
