Shared Storytelling in Euripidean Stichomythia Liesbeth Schuren, 2014-10-30 Long stichomythic dialogues in the tragedies of Euripides are connected with some of the greatest problems of critical appreciation The form is considered unnatural particularly when characters use stichomythia to tell stories to each other In Shared Storytelling in Euripidean Stichomythia Liesbeth Schuren tries to rehabilitate Euripidean stichomythia using pragmatic and narratological approaches In the section devoted to pragmatic analysis comparison between the turn taking systems in Euripidean stichomythia and naturally occurring conversation establishes to what extent convention and realism are operative Using narratological arguments the traditional apparatus is expanded to suit the dialogic nature of narrative stichomythia Analysis of narrative presentation in storytelling with two interlocutors results in a multi faceted perspective an effect unique to narrative stichomythia

Tense-Switching in Classical Greek Arjan A. Nijk, 2022-02-17 Tense is at its most interesting when it behaves badly In this book Arjan Nijk investigates the variation between the past and present tenses to refer to past events in Classical Greek and beyond Adopting a cognitive approach to the issue he argues that the use of the present for preterite depends on the activation of implicit conceptual scenarios in which the gap between the past and the present is bridged The book is distinguished from previous accounts by its precision in describing these conceptual scenarios the combination of linguistic
