

ATTACHING ACTIVITY 2: ECONOMIC SYSTEMS AND DECISION MAKING

Every country has an economic system that organizes how goods and services are produced and answers the questions of what, how, and for whom goods are produced. This study is about a country's economic system, which organizes the type of economic system it has.

Directions: The table below lists the three major types of economic systems. Complete the table with brief descriptions of these three systems, including how these three economic systems identify each system's advantages and disadvantages. These provide cues for other examples of each system.

Finding the Link Between 21st Century Community Learning Centers and School Day Classrooms Tara B. Donahue, 2006 Glencoe Mathematics, 2001 How to Give Effective Feedback to Your Students Susan M. Brookhart, 2008 A teacher's feedback on student schoolwork can be a powerful force for learning if it contains a helpful message and is delivered with certain considerations in mind But what kind of content makes a feedback message helpful to a student And what kinds of strategies work best for delivering feedback In How to Give Effective Feedback to Your Students Susan M Brookhart answers these questions by describing important elements of feedback content focus comparison function valence clarity specificity and tone and strategy timing amount mode and audience Grounded in what researchers have learned about effective feedback the book provides practical suggestions and classroom examples that demonstrate what to do and not do to have a positive impact on students In addition to general guidelines for good feedback readers will learn what kinds of feedback work best in the various content areas and how to adjust feedback for different kinds of learners including successful students struggling students and English language learners Done well feedback has a two pronged effect it influences cognitive factors by helping students understand where they are in their learning and where they need to go next and it influences motivational factors by helping students develop a feeling of control over their own learning Taken together these factors explain why learning how to give good feedback should be at the top of every teacher s to do list
