

What the Seven Army Values Are

The essay will cover the Army Values, the importance of them, and a brief history of where they came from. The seven values are a guideline for soldiers to base their lives on. Each value has a different meaning that, when put together, make a soldier stronger within themselves. The core aspect of the values holds the Army to a higher standard and should drive soldiers to surpass a mediocre image.

To begin, this paragraph will cover what the seven Army Values are. The acronym that is commonly used to learn the values is "LDRSHIP". Loyalty is the first value, "L", and is to devote yourself to something such as the Army and your unit. "D", duty is second value which, as stated in army.mil, is to "fulfill your obligations." Also, to ensure you complete your job to standard by not taking "shortcuts". "R" stands for respect meaning treat people as people, no one person is more valuable than another. Fourth, "S", is selfless-service; putting the needs of others before your own. "H" stands for honor, this value is how you would see yourself and others would view you. Honor is one that ties in all others and begins to form a soldiers' character. Integrity, "I", is being true to yourself and others by not stealing, lying, or taking shortcuts in a task. Soldiers that have no integrity cause trust to crumble. All soldiers should be able to trust any soldier in the Army just as they do the ones in their squad. Last is "P", or personal-courage, challenging yourself to face fears, accomplish goals or strive for greatness. This value challenges soldiers to continue to grow within themselves. Soldiers who are afraid of challenge could become a liability to their squad or platoon.

To continue, this next paragraph will explain why the seven Army Values are an important part of the Army. When soldiers as a whole live by the values, the Army is more unified. When all soldiers live by the values, a higher level of professionalism is expected among peers. A uniformed soldier seen by civilians represents the United States and the Army. That soldier, for example, is caught stealing from a store resulting in the reputation of the Army being tarnished. Through that selfish act, that soldier hurt the credibility of anyone who wears the uniform. A soldier is seen assisting an elderly woman cross the road, an example of selfless-service, then exemplifies the Army Values. That soldier just brought honor to their self and all others in the military. A soldier must rely on peers in a combat situation. It is the soldiers' duty to perform their job in any situation. If they fail to perform their duty the mission may be compromised. Even if the situation is in garrison, that soldier just failed their squad or platoon who now has cover the job. Respect is a value that is in place to keep soldiers humble. Soldiers must respect other soldiers in order to create an excepting and team building atmosphere. Respect of others pr
