Seventh-day Adventist Church Manual. General Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, 2005 Los Angeles ,1941

Girl Cases Brett L. Shadle, 2006-08-30 Beginning in the late 1930s a crisis in colonial Gusiiland developed over traditional marriage customs Couples eloped wives deserted husbands fathers forced daughters into marriage and desperate men abducted women as wives Existing historiography focuses on women who either fled their rural homes to escape a new dual patriarchy African men backed by colonial officials or surrendered themselves to this new power Girl Cases Marriage and Colonialism in Gusiiland Kenya 1890 1970 takes a new approach to the study of Gusii marriage customs and shows that Gusii women stayed in their homes to fight over the nature of marriage Gusii women and their lovers remained committed to traditional bridewealth marriage but they raised deeper questions over the relations between men and women During this time of social upheaval thousands of marriage disputes flowed into local African courts By examining court transcripts Girl Cases sheds light on the dialogue that developed surrounding the nature of marriage Should parental rights to arrange a marriage outweigh women's rights to choose their husbands Could violence by abductors create a legitimate union Men and women debated these and other issues in the courtroom and Brett L Shadle's analysis of the transcripts provides a valuable addition to African social history

Faith, Food, and Family in a Yupik Whaling Community Carol Zane Jolles, Elinor Mikaghaq Oozeva, 2011-10-01 For more than fifteen hundred years Yupik and proto Yupik Eskimo peoples have lived at the site of the Alaskan village of Gambell on St Lawrence Island Their history is a record of family and kin and of the interrelationship between those who live in Gambell and the spiritual world on which they depend it is a history dominated by an abiding desire for community survival Relying on oral history blended with ethnography and ethnohistory Carol Zane Jolles views the contemporary Yupik people in terms of the enduring beliefs and values that have contributed to the community's survival and adaptability She draws on extensive interviews with villagers archival records and scholarly studies as well as on her own ten years of fieldwork in Gambell to demonstrate the central importance of three aspects of Yupik life religious beliefs devotion to a subsistence life way and family and clan ties Jolles documents the life and livelihood of this modern community of marine mammal hunters and explores the ways in which religion is woven into the lives of community members paying particular attention to the roles of women Her account conveys a powerful sense of the lasting bonds between those who live in Gambell and their spiritual world both past and present The Seventh-Day Adventist Bible Commentary Francis David Nichol,1957 Religious Higher Education in the United States Thomas Hunt,James Carper,2018-10-11 Originally published in 1996 Religious Higher Education in the United States looks at the issue of higher education and a lack of a clearly articulated purpose an issue particularly challenging to religiously affiliated institutions This volume attempts to address the problems currently facing denomination affiliated institutions of higher education beginning with an introduction to government aid and the regulation of religious colleges and universities in the US The greater part of the volume consists of 24 chapters each of which begins with a historical essay followed by annotated bibliographical entries covering primary and secondary sources dating back to 1986 on various denomination connected institutions Advent Review and Sabbath Herald ,1975 Gayellow Pages ,2001 Alcohol Education David J. Hanson,1996-11-30 In spite of a massive national investment in alcohol education the evidence clearly demonstrates that our current efforts are overwhelmingly ineffective and are often counterproductive The assessment of the effectiveness of alcohol programs over the past 15 years reveals that those based on the responsible use approach tend to be superior to those based on the abstinence approach Hanson puts the historical relationship between Americans and alcohol into perspective discusses federal policies on alcohol that are highly ideological and biased and advocates the development of responsible use curricula that will prepare students to be as adults responsible consumers of alcohol While alcohol has been praised as a sign of refinement a source of relaxation and a complement to good times it has also been cursed as the cause of disease and death The temperance movement which taught that alcohol was poison and that moderation in its use was no more possible than moderation in murder has greatly influenced American thought and is reflected in our abstinence oriented approach to alcohol education Current programs reflect not only these abstinence origins but the inclusion of drug education several decades ago Hanson finds that despite good intentions evidence indicates that this approach has proved ineffective He considers the strong and often mixed feelings Americans have toward alcohol that are reflected in ever changing public policy and concludes that the development and evaluation of alcohol education programs should be based on the best scientific evidence available rather than on political ideology Recommendations for change in alcohol education are presented with the most important being that we must promote the development and evaluation of diverse responsible use curricula with the goal of reducing alcohol abuse The Standard Periodical Directory ,1991 Receiving the Word Samuel Koranteng-Pipim,1996 Foreword by Dr Paul Yeboah To the Reader Acknowledgments and Dedication I BACKGROUND OF THE CRISIS 1 Crisis Over the Word 2 Trusting the Word 3 Doubting the Word II NATURE OF THE CRISIS 4 Quarreling Over the Word 5 Departing from the Word I Sole or Primary
