Not for Sale Rebecca Whisnant, Christine Stark, 2004 Prostitution and pornography are linked with racism and male dominance as well as with imperialism militarism including torture and global corporate culture The result is devastating harm for women and children within these industries Subjected to physical and psychological violence poverty drug addiction and homelessness are their usual companions With its mix of personal stories theory research testimony and accounts of current activism Not For Sale will be an invaluable resource for all those seeking to inform themselves about the realities of the sex business and will serve to strengthen and broaden feminist resistance to pornography and prostitution

Dangerous Intercourse Tessa Winkelmann, 2023-01-15 In Dangerous Intercourse Tessa Winkelmann examines interracial social and sexual contact between Americans and Filipinos in the early twentieth century via a wide range of relationships from the casual and economic to the formal and long term Winkelmann argues that such intercourse was foundational not only to the colonization of the Philippines but also to the longer uneven history between the two nations Although some relationships between Filipinos and Americans served as demonstrations of US benevolence too close sexual relations also threatened social hierarchies and the so called civilizing mission For the Filipino Indigenous Moro

Chinese and other local populations intercourse offered opportunities to negotiate and challenge empire though these opportunities often came at a high cost for those most vulnerable Drawing on a multilingual array of primary sources Dangerous Intercourse highlights that sexual relationships enabled US authorities to police white and nonwhite bodies alike define racial and national boundaries and solidify colonial rule throughout the archipelago The dangerous ideas about sexuality and Filipina women created and shaped by US imperialists of the early twentieth century remain at the core of contemporary American notions of the island nation and indeed of Asian and Asian American women more generally The Johns Victor Malarek,2011-08-01 Each year more than 800 000 women and children are lured tricked or forced into prostitution to meet an apparently insatiable demand joining an estimated 10 million women already ensnared in the 20 billion worldwide sex trade To date most research on the subject has focused on the various issues that propel these women into the trade but little has been investigated or written about those who trigger the demand the Johns In this hard hitting expose Victor Malarek ranges worldwide unmasking the kind of men and organizations that foster and drive the sex trade from America to Europe Brazil to Thailand Phnom Penh to St Petersburg and Costa Rica From socioeconomic background to emotional stability Malarek investigates the root of the cause and attacks the idea that prostitution is a victimless crime He explores the efficacy of Sweden s outlawing the buying rather than the selling of sex and its dramatic impact on the country s prostitution rates The Johns is a chilling look into a dark corner of the world that these men have created at the expense of countless women and children AIDS Failure Philippines? Earl K.
