

OPENING PRAYER FOR CHURCH SERVICE

“Father God,

Enter our church right now and bless all our hearts.
Attract light to our lives, to this church and to all of those we love.

Open our minds to accept all our differences, open our hearts so that we can give love to everyone who deserves it and open our souls so that Your light can enter our lives.

May You always guide my life and the lives of all those present in this church.

Amen”

Compiled by the Rev. T. T. Carter Thomas Thellusson Carter,1862 Understanding Prayer for the Dead James B. Gould,2016-08-04 Throughout history Christians have prayed for the dead both for continual growth of the faithful and for their advancement from purgatory though not for the deliverance of the unsaved from hell This book defends all three kinds of prayer It challenges Protestants who seldom pray for the dead to begin doing so and Roman Catholics and Eastern Orthodox who pray only for the Christian dead to include the unsaved as well James Gould addresses the biblical credentials of prayer for the dead and provides a historical overview of such prayers from ancient Christianity to the current practice of the three main branches of the church He also discusses the logical assumptions prayer for the dead requires that prayer is effective that the dead are conscious and that the afterlife involves change and lays out a theological framework for such prayers Prayer for the departed raises the most basic of theological questions matters that go to the center of God s purpose in creating spiritual beings and redeeming sinful humankind The argument while revisionary in some respects is orthodox ecumenical and integrative engaging a range of academic disciplines so as to be biblically accurate historically informed and
