Basil Bernstein is arguably one of the most important educational theorists of the late 20th century Whilst most academics and students in sociology of education know of Bernstein few can claim to fully understand the scope and power of his work which simply cannot be matched by any of his contemporaries This book written by a team of international contributors offers an insight into the richness and depth of his theories It demonstrates the growing recognition of the value of Bernstein's work to understanding unfolding developments in education systems around the world today The volume is divided into four sections Section 1 considers the work of the theorists that Bernstein worked through and with from Durkheim and Marx to Bourdieu and Foucault Section 2 focuses on teaching and learning in school contexts and draw on current issues like boy's underachievement citizenship system reform and language learning in varied cultural contexts Section 3 applies Bernstein's theories to teacher education Section 4 focuses on international and higher education This comprehensive text will show the international academic community in education and sociology as well as students on education sociology sociolinguistic and social psychology degrees how to read and use Bernstein

Eye Can Write Jonathan Bryan, 2018-07-12 Can you imagine not being able to speak or communicate The silence the loneliness the pain But inside you disappear to magical places and even meet your best friend there However most of the time you remain imprisoned within the isolation Waiting longing hoping Until someone realises your potential and discovers your key so your unlocking can begin Now you are free flying like a wild bird in the open sky A voice for the voiceless Jonathan Bryan has severe cerebral palsy a condition that makes him incapable of voluntary movement or speech He was locked inside his own mind aware of the outside world but unable to fully communicate with it until he found a way by using his eyes to laboriously choose individual letters and through this make his thoughts known In Eye can Write we read of his intense passion for life his mischievous sense of fun his hopes his fears and what it's like to be him This is a powerful book from an incredible young writer whose writing ability defies age or physical disability a truly inspirational figure Foreword by Sir Michael Morpurgo A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated to Jonathan Bryan's charity Teach Us Too <http://www.teachustoo.org.uk>

How to Teach Maths Steve Chinn, 2020-11-23 How to Teach Maths challenges everything you thought you knew about how maths is taught in classrooms Award winning author Steve Chinn casts a critical eye over many of the long established methods and beliefs of maths teaching Drawing from decades of classroom experience and research he shows how mathematics teaching across the whole ability range can be radically improved by learning from the successful methods and principles used for the bottom quartile of achievers the outliers Chinn guides readers through re-adjusting the presentation of maths to learners considering learners needs first and explains the importance of securing early learning to create a conceptual foundation for later success This highly accessible book uses clear diagrams and examples to support maths teachers through many critical
