IN-TEXT CITATION is used to identify your source of information, whether quoted or paraphrased, within your paper. It is brief information, referring the reader to your reference list. Include the author(s) last name (unless it appears in the narrative) and the date. For quotations, include the page number, or for electronic (online) articles without page numbers, use a brief section title and paragraph number. Here are a few examples:

Quotations -- with pages: "Our culture is full of simpleminded myths of blame" (Sher, 1994, p. 45).

-- online article, no pages: "Empirical studies have found mixed results" (Golan & Kuchler, 2007, "Conclusions," para. 4).

One author: Pagels (1995) discussed ... Two authors: Juedes and Curry (1999) concluded...
OR (Pagels, 1995) OR (Juedes & Curry, 1999)

Three to five authors – first citation: Smiler, Kay, and Harris (2008) examined the history...

-- more references to the same source (first author followed by et al.):
Smiler et al. (2008) found...

Six or more authors: The first author followed by et al for all citations. If there is more than one article with the same lead author, see the manual for directions.

Multiple works cited together: List alphabetically by first author.

Several studies (Balda, 1995; Kamil, 1988; Pepperberg & Funk, 1990)...

Personal Communications (e.g., e-mail, personal interviews): These are included for in-text citations, but are not included in the reference list because they are not recoverable.

...as described by R. Gerstner (personal communication, November 12, 2001).

Secondary Source (use sparingly): The secondary source, Claiborne, is the one included in the reference list.

Davis,2015-12-01 Online Counselor Education A Guide for Students is an all new guide for online students in counselor education programs Students in online environments face a number of challenges that could put them at a disadvantage unless they have a resource to help guide them through some of the confusing aspects of an online environment Such challenges include the lack of understanding surrounding graduate school performance expectations balancing graduate school and life the inability to connect with community members and local field agencies and various other aspects unique to an online environment This text from Carl J Sheperis and R J Davis will help students through these challenges and act as an invaluable resource The ESL Writer's Handbook, 2nd Ed. Janine Carlock,Maeve Eberhardt,Jaime Horst,Lionel Menasche,2017-12-20 The ESL Writer s Handbook is a reference work for ESL students who are taking college level courses Because its purpose is to provide help with the broad variety of writing questions students may have when working on school assignments the text focuses on English for Academic Purposes Unlike other handbooks on the market this book s sole purpose is to address the issues of second language learners The spiral bound Handbook complements a student writer's dictionary thesaurus and grammar reference book. It would be suitable as a text for an advanced ESL writing course when used together with the companion Workbook 978 0 472 03726 1. The new edition features significant revisions to Sections 3 and 4 in particular; both APA and MLA style guides have been updated and new sample papers for each are included. The new edition includes new and revised exercises and many new samples of student writing. Like its predecessor, the 2nd Edition has these special features. The topic selection is based on ESL writers' needs as observed by the authors over many years. The coverage of topics is more complete than the limited amount usually provided for ESL writers in first language or L1 handbooks. The explanatory language is appropriate for ESL students in contrast to the more complex and idiomatic language of other English handbooks. Many of the examples of paragraphs, essays, research papers, and exercise sentences were written by ESL students to help users realize that they too can become effective writers.
