Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1910. British Museum Catalogue of printed Books, 1881. The Rime of the Ancient Mariner \(The Complete Illustrated Edition\) Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 2015-01-01. The Rime of the Ancient Mariner is the longest major poem by the English poet Samuel Taylor Coleridge. The poem relates the experiences of a sailor who has returned from a long sea voyage. The mariner stops a man who is on the way to a wedding ceremony and begins to narrate a story. The wedding guest's reaction turns from bemusement to impatience to fear to fascination as the mariner's story progresses, as can be seen in the language style. Coleridge uses narrative techniques such as personification and repetition to create a sense of danger, the supernatural, or serenity depending on the mood in different parts of the poem. Along with other poems in Lyrical Ballads, it was a signal shift to modern poetry and the beginning of British Romantic literature. Samuel Taylor Coleridge (1772-1834) was an English poet, literary critic, and philosopher who, with his friend William Wordsworth, was a founder of the Romantic Movement in England and a member of the Lake Poets. The Rime of the Ancient Mariner Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 2014-03-22. The Rime of the Ancient Mariner - Large Print Edition Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 2013-12. This is the longest of Coleridge's major poems. In 1817 Coleridge wrote the following about the poem in his Biographia Literaria: "The thought suggested itself to which of us I do not recollect that a series of poems might be composed of two sorts. In the one incidents and agents were to be in part at least supernatural and the excellence aimed at was to consist in the interesting of the affections by the dramatic truth of such emotions as would naturally accompany such situations supposing them real. And real in this sense they have been to every human being who from whatever source of delusion has at any time believed himself under supernatural agency. For the second class subjects were to be chosen from ordinary life. In this idea originated the plan of the Lyrical Ballads in which it was agreed that my endeavours should be directed to persons and characters supernatural or at least Romantic yet so as to transfer from our inward nature a human interest and a semblance of truth sufficient to procure for these shadows of imagination that willing suspension of disbelief for the moment which constitutes poetic faith. With this view I wrote the Ancient Mariner. This Large Print Edition is presented in easy to read 16 point type." Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1884.
