

Informative Speech: "The Causes of Homelessness"

4 pages | 906 words

Subject and Purpose 1. This informative speech on "The Cause of Homelessness" is very Inform able and worth listening to, because in today's economy it could be you or me. Some seem to think homelessness is choice. I find this speech relevant to the world I live in today, due to the high unemployment rate, declining job market, and the economic hardships that families are enduring. This topic is not a broad one, but yet can be spoke of in depth due to the fact I see many homeless people but never thought it would be me until I seen a family friend who has lost everything, this is what made me more aware that it is not just a choice and any day it could be me. So when you see a homeless person do not judge it could be you.

The Thesis and Key Points

2. The Speakers thesis statement is clear and limited to one main Idea, homeless people. The speaker limiting the thesis to one main idea was a great idea, this keep the audience focused on what is being said and do not have a chance of being distracted. The key points the speaker made are very relevant to thesis opening one key point he made was the cause of homelessness which is poverty and then he goes a little further into quoting a man who lost everything who realizes other homeless people where nice and were part of the working community at one point having a job, house, car but losing it all to lack of income.

Research 3. The speaker has done a great job on researching his subject, he uses information from the National Coalition for the homeless and the US Conference of Mayors. The sources he quotes are considered creditable, as far as them being up to date we are in 2013 which I am sure the statistics has changed from 2008. The speaker has properly cited his sources and referenced all research data though out his speech. Before giving the information he states "According to The National Coalition for the Homeless and then proceeds to quote. The speaker presents himself as having a good understanding of the subject and specific points, he speaks without reading from a paper or notes. In my opinion he provided just enough evidence to starch the surface like providing the statistics and some statements from other creditable people.

4. Organization

The speaker has organized his speech very well, he has everything in order from the beginning to the end. I was unable to tell what he was going to talk about by his introduction, but his opening made me curious and grasped my attention. In his body he explained many causes of homelessness and gave examples. At the end of his speech he summed it all up to what he talked about in is body. The attention gripper for me was the story he told of how a couple of teenagers dehumanized a homeless man and left him for dead. This story was...

Communication Daniel M. Dunn, Lisa J. Goodnight, 2016-05-23 Communication Embracing Difference 4e stresses the importance of understanding and celebrating difference as a means to becoming a more effective communicator. This text describes basic communication theory in everyday non technical terms and offers students an abundance of opportunities to analyze, understand, practice and apply skills to real life situations presented in the book and encountered in their own daily lives. Communication Embracing Difference emphasizes the practical application of communication skills in interpersonal, small group and public settings which will help students become more confident and successful communicators. Targeting both mainstream students and non traditional students who range widely in age, ethnicity, race, religion, sexual orientation, social roles and socio economic status, this text is designed with an overall approach that resonates with the diverse student populations making up so many campuses today. Public Speaking Leigh Makay, 1995-11 The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard), Official Report, 5th Series Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 1984 The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 1983 Language Arts and Literacy in the Middle Grades Margaret J. Finders, Susan Hynds, 2007 From two prominent scholars in the field of literacy comes a middle school teacher preparation text that offers important innovations not usually found in traditional secondary methods texts. The book is rife with concrete examples of teaching literacy and language arts in middle school contexts but is relevant to preservice and practicing teachers at middle and high school levels. This edition includes a stronger focus on culturally relevant pedagogy and the needs of English Language Learners as well as a Standards in Practice feature which helps teachers incorporate state and national standards in teaching and planning. The book is based on a teacher as inquirer model. A fieldwork component provides tools for classroom inquiry and reflection in each chapter. The book is timely and relevant with classroom cases written by experienced and new middle school language arts teachers. No Longer Homeless David Wagner, 2018-02-19 Research suggests that between 6 and 14 percent of the US population has been homeless at some point in their lives. A huge number of people. No Longer Homeless shares the stories of people who have formerly been homeless to examine how they transition off the streets, find housing and stay housed. No Longer Homeless offers a unique perspective of people who have managed to change their lives, the resources they needed and the factors that contributed to lasting change. The book profiles men and women of different races and ages across the country and it shares stories of people who have been off the streets from two months to twenty years. It addresses topics such as addiction, mental health, income from formal employment and off the books work and community resources. No Longer Homeless is a powerful look at a group of people we rarely hear about: those who have formerly been on the streets, sharing the details of their lives to help individuals, organizations and communities learn to better support the ongoing challenges of homelessness. Street Lives Steven VanderStaay, 1992 A collection of experiences told by homeless individuals and families from all over the country discussing

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
