Wendroff, 2004-03-30 As the philosopher Martin Buber wrote All real living is meeting People like to get together That's why special events can often work so much better for nonprofit organizations than other less social types of fundraising programs From red carpet galas to Saturday afternoon street fairs special events offer nonprofits an unparalleled opportunity to both raise money and make friends Yet for all the benefits and they are great inexperience and bad planning can make these events more trouble and a greater financial drain than they are worth Special Events Proven Strategies for Nonprofit Fundraising Second Edition is the complete guide to making your next nonprofit event the rousing success it can be Packed with author and development professional Alan Wendroff's realistic insights and pointers this text provides a logical and comprehensive outline of event planning with a special emphasis on fitting these events into the larger framework of the nonprofit's organizational goals Inside you'll find such helpful tools as Seven goals for a successful event The Master Event Timetable METT a proven organizational tool that provides step by step guidance through the entire event process A case study explaining in understandable detail how to implement the advice and methods outlined An accompanying CD that includes sample timelines worksheets checklists budgets writing examples decision tables and contracts From choosing the right event to the best way of expressing thanks afterwards Special Events covers all aspects of producing a winning fundraiser for your organization In addition to the brass tacks of managing logistics the coverage includes thoughtful discussions on how to take full advantage of the networking volunteer recruitment public relations and motivational opportunities your special event can provide This updated Second Edition features new information in these areas plus an entirely new chapter on using the Internet for event planning With the needs of nonprofit organizations only growing as donations shrink special events become more and more vital in sustaining the life of these organizations Nonprofit lay leaders professionals and staff as well as marketing professionals and event planners who work with nonprofits will all find in Special Events Second Edition a clearly drawn road map leading to fundraising success Serve and Learn Florence Fay Pritchard, George I. Whitehead, III, 2004-07-22 This volume makes two important contributions First it provides a framework grounded in theory and best professional practice that middle and high school teachers their students and community partners can use to design implement and evaluate service learning projects that address authentic community needs Second it demonstrates ways collaborative service learning can enhance students intellectual development promote their academic achievement strengthen their citizenship skills and accelerate the kinds of educational accountability and reform initiatives emphasized in the national educational standards movement and the 2002 No Child Left Behind Act Serve and Learn Implementing and Evaluating Service Learning in Middle and High Schools provides what may be the only comprehensive guide to implementing assessing and celebrating service learning in today s middle and high schools emphasizes and explicates a collaborative approach to service learning in which teachers students and community partners team together to advance learning and meet genuine community needs demonstrates how service learning teams use key elements of standards based education multiple intelligences theory and cooperative learning to guide project development implementation assessment and evaluation offers optional designs for service learning projects that are suitable for use by interns and beginning teachers as well as by experienced and master teachers and that can be used in a developmental sequence by school and community partners to build from small individual projects toward school system and community wide projects and includes end of chapter activities that help those who use the book as a text to practice the model and its strategies and use results to create their own service learning projects The book is organized in three parts that present service learning along a theoretical to practical continuum Part I lays the foundations for the method by proposing a collaborative model for service learning Part II explicates this model and explains the four sets of processes that teams use to commit to a project cooperatively determine students project outcomes and ways to measure them develop learning activities to help students achieve outcomes and then evaluate their projects and celebrate growth Part III provides resources for carrying out the collaborative model A wide range of educators will find this book useful Its distinctive contributions and features are particularly valuable for teacher educators students and community partners already committed to service learning projects to those who are introducing service learning into their practice and to instructional supervisors school administrators and community agencies seeking to create a climate for service learning or to enrich initiatives already underway

A Children's Play of the Stations of the Cross Heather Cleaver, 2011-03-17 In this play The Stations of the Cross become meaningful for children as they reenact Jesus story and depict His suffering sacrifice and love This book includes the script for A Children s Play of the Stations of the Cross personal writing sections directing notes annotated along the side of the script for the young actor s ease of reading pictures and directions for costumes props suggestions on how to tweak the play to make it suitable for your needs and sample letters If you are unable to put this play together at this time it still serves as a fantastic read Reading through this is a great way to introduce young children to the Stations of the Cross and it is also helpful for anyone regardless of age to reflect on Jesus Passion I have had the honor of viewing this play as written and directed by Heather Cleaver and I have also been honored to have co directed this play three times What makes this play
