

Graduation Speech – Class of 2015
Saint Xavier High School - May 17, 2015

Graduates:

Welcome to this Day and to the meaning behind the dignity of this ceremony as you join the ranks of Saint Xavier's alumni.

You have been school leaders at an historical time as we concluded the celebration of the school's 150th Anniversary. Reflect for a moment on that history, on those who have gone before you, developing the philosophy, programs and facilities and paving the way for the opportunities you have had and the experiences we have shared. Soon it will be your responsibility to ensure a St. X experience for other students and that such opportunities are there and even better for them.

Then reflect one more time on our theme for the year: Together, we dream, we believe and we achieve. Those who walked the halls, took the classes and were part of the teams and activities before you continued to dream, developing a vision for what St. X has become and achieving in ways that propelled our school forward. And all along the way, they believed faithfully that God would walk with them and provide even more opportunities to learn, know, love and serve.

You have continued the traditions, stretched the vision and walked together in faith in all that we have asked you to do.

Writing/Grammar 7 Teacher's Edition Set Bob Jones University Press,June Cates,1989 Dying to Live Ian Murphy,2020-05-06 When high school valedictorian Ian Murphy was writing his graduation address a teacher told him that he could not mention Jesus in his speech She even threatened to pull the plug on the microphone if he tried to do so Murphy

s defiance in the name of his constitutional rights made national news and his zeal to spread the Gospel no matter the cost became the defining passion of his life Murphy s public battle for his freedom of speech is where this conversion story begins but then it retraces the other important experiences of his youth He describes his free spirited Christian parents his early doubts the influence of faith filled relatives and friends and the spiritual encounter that made him a believer At a young age Murphy went from strength to strength as he sought after truth grew in prayer and shared his faith with others But his doubts resurfaced when his friend and mentor the leader of a Protestant college group was murdered After his trust in God was restored Murphy became a Baptist minister in the Bible Belt and from there his spiritual journey led him into the Catholic Church The unexpected twists and turns in Murphy s extraordinary story show that when a man gives his life to Christ the Lord never lets him go

The Class of 1968 Doris Townsend Gaines, Carolyn Hall Abrams, 2021-03-22 Born in the late 1940 s and early 50 s and raised in a segregated town in southern Mississippi a group of Black girls and boys came of age together and graduated from high school in Hattiesburg as The Class of 1968 Now in their late 60 s and early 70 s they have chosen to reflect on their families community and school experiences Together they experienced one of the most tumultuous eras in U S history and they reflect on those experiences in these personal essays They think back on the Vietnam War the draft the assassination of their neighbors and national leaders and the Civil Rights Movement The fact that they came of age during these tumultuous events makes their experiences all the more vivid and profound since the tender adolescent years typically mark us more profoundly than other phases in life Perhaps most significantly the era suddenly brought racial desegregation to Hattiesburg in early 1967 Under Freedom of School Choice some Black Hattiesburg students saw their lifelong friends choose to attend the white high school for their senior year Their stories bring forth a rush of memories some that will make you laugh others that will make you cry and many that will make you wonder how things may have turned out differently had racism not poisoned their day to day lives Although the contributors dealt with these formative experiences differently all were touched in some way by the same forces in the dying days of legalized segregation The essays here also reflect on our present moment although racial segregation has lessened it still persists in Hattiesburg and throughout America leading to an era we might call racial resegregation Yet the 1950 s and 60 s have ended We don t want these memories to die with us says lead editor Mrs Doris Gaines We want the next generations to know our thoughts and feelings and to understand how the past helped make us what we are today and what made us tick The Class of 1968 A Thread Through Time explains how these citizens negotiated their youth in Hattiesburg and in doing so offers us wisdom about how to move through life with grace and integrity
