

Autobiography

My name is Michael Smith and I was born on the 30th of August, 1967 in Long Beach, California. My parents were Eddie Smith and Joan Smith. Both of my parents are deceased. My mom died at the age of 57 in 1994 from lung cancer which was the result of smoking her whole lifetime. My father died at the age of 69 in 2006 from a massive heart attack, which was also the likely result from a lifetime of smoking. Fortunately I have been smart enough to avoid that bad habit.

My early childhood was a typical middle class environment circa the 1960's. My dad worked for Simpson Buick as a parts salesman and my mom was a stay at home mother. I had a happy, normal childhood as an only child, leaving me somewhat spoiled. My mom and dad divorced when I was eight years old and both remarried within a year or so of the divorce. My dad remained married to my stepmom Bev until his death. My mom would marry two more times. My first stepdad Vince became a big part of my life and I maintained close contact with him until his death in 2006, two days after my real dad died. Yes, that was a very bad week, losing both of my dads.

Growing up with split parents was not especially difficult since each of my parents kept me out of their divorce and they got along fine at events where both of them were present. I lived with my mom until I was 16 and in high school. By my sophomore year in high school I had begun to hang around with friends that got me into a lot of trouble with a number of things including smoking pot and drinking. I was rapidly heading down a negative path, but was fortunate enough to notice it before I had done any serious damage. I moved in with my dad and changed high schools and friends.

The Power of Middle School Keen J. Babbage, 2012-09-14 The middle school years are a maze of academic duties human growth and self development discovering self identity and increasing social interaction with other people This maze can be an adventure of achievement and opportunity or it can be a struggle of difficulty and disappointment As these experiences are the impetus or foundation for many later achievements in academics careers and personal life it is imperative that educators maximize these formative years by helping middle school students successfully travel through this maze despite its ups and downs its twists and turns and its new challenges to master and the old issues to resolve For instance educators must support students who have fallen behind so as to thwart their reduced likelihood of turnaround in high school Likewise educators must challenge exceptional students in order to perpetuate their enthusiasm for learning and prepare them for college studies By discussing the comprehensive roles and duties of school administrators counselors and teachers The Power of Middle School addresses how to maximize middle school curriculum and extra curricular activities for the academic personal and professional benefits of all students Memoir, Autobiography and Correspondence of Jeremiah Mason Jeremiah Mason,1917 Biography Strategy Lesson--Autobiography Garth Sundem,2014-02-01 Introduce biographies with fun creative activities that teach literacy skills and more Use multiple intelligences to create an active learning environment Meet the needs of all students with specific differentiation suggestions Cracking the MCAT, 2013-2014 Edition James L. Dobson,Mark A. Clarke,2023-02-28 Teaching students complex reading strategies for everyday and academic reading Robert Penn Warren, Shadowy Autobiography, and Other Makers of American Literature Joseph R. Millichap,2023-08-18 Toward the end of his career Robert Penn Warren wrote It may be said that our lives are our own supreme fiction Although lauded for his writing in multiple genres Warren never wrote an autobiography Instead he created his own shadowy autobiography in his poetry and prose as well as his fiction and nonfiction As one of the most thoughtful scholars on Robert Penn Warren and the literature of the South Joseph Millichap builds on the accepted idea that Warren s poetry and fiction became more autobiographical in his later years by demonstrating that that same progression is replicated in Warren s literary criticism This meticulously researched study reexamines in particular Warren s later nonfiction in which autobiographical concerns come into play that is in those fraught with psychological crisis such as Democracy and Poetry Millichap reveals the interrelated literary genres of autobiography criticism and poetry as psychological modes encompassing the interplay of Warren's life and work in his later nonfiction. He also shows how Warren's critical engagement with major American authors often centered on the ways their creative work intersected with their lives, thus generating both autobiographical criticism and the working out of Warren's own autobiography under these influences. Millichap's latest book focuses on Warren's critical responses to William Faulkner, John Crowe Ransom, Herman Melville, Nathaniel Hawthorne, John Greenleaf Whittier, and Theodore Dreiser. In addition, the author carefully considers the black and female writers Warren assessed more briefly in American Literature: The Makers and the Making. Robert Penn Warren, Shadowy Autobiography and Other Makers of American Literature presents the breadth of Millichap's scholarship, the depth of his insight, and the maturity of his judgment by giving us to understand that in his writing Robert Penn Warren came to know his own vocation as a poet and critic and as an American.
