Naval Education and Training Command,1990 The Taxpayer Navy M. L. Berry,2022-11-21 Tax dollars wasted on over priced ships Good ships decommissioned for no reason Brand new shore infrastructure shuttered or ill maintained U S naval history from 1950 to the present is rife with mismanagement the consequences of which fall largely on the taxpayers shoulders And when most of the people making decisions in the Pentagon have never served on the deck of a ship is it any wonder With little to no oversight the Navy has spent and wasted millions of dollars over the past seventy years From decommissioning ships early to constructing classes of ships that are less capable than advertised to Congress the Navy has heavily invested in systems that looked fine on paper but were failures in actual application This detailed history of the state of commissioned ships includes recommendations for the allocation of funds into improvements that should be made to ensure sustainable and affordable ships for the U S Navy of the future For readers interested in the detailed minutiae related to the development cost and lifetime of naval ships or of any military expenditures for that matter this book is a must read manual The Ship and Vessel index for this publication will be provided by contacting the author at TheTaxpayerNavy.com

Soldier Dogs Maria Goodavage, 2012-03-15 A leading reporter offers a tour of military working dogs extraordinary training heroic accomplishments and the lasting impacts they have on those who work with them People all over the world have been riveted by the story of Cairo the Belgian Malinois who was a part of the Navy SEAL team that led the raid on Osama bin Laden s compound A dog s natural intelligence physical abilities and pure loyalty contribute more to our military efforts than ever before You don t have to be a dog lover to be fascinated by the idea that a dog the cousin of that furry guy begging for scraps under your table could be one of the heroes who helped execute the most vital and high tech military mission of the new millennium Now Maria Goodavage editor and featured writer for one of the world s most widely read dog blogs tells heartwarming stories of modern soldier dogs and the amazing bonds that develop between them and their handlers Beyond tales of training operations retirement and adoption into the families of fallen soldiers Goodavage talks to leading dog cognition experts about why dogs like nothing more than to be on a mission with a handler they trust no matter how deadly the IEDs they are sniffing nor how far they must parachute or rappel from aircraft into enemy territory Military working dogs live for love and praise from their handlers says Ron Aiello president of the United States War Dogs Association and a former marine scout dog handler The work is all a big game and then they get that pet that praise They would do anything for their handler This is an unprecedented window into the world of these adventurous loving warriors
