Recollections of a Southern Matron Caroline Gilman,2020-05-28 There have been many editions of this popular 1838 work written by a Northern woman who lived for many years in Charleston S C Technically it is a fiction book because of her apocryphal story line She relies heavily however upon her real life experiences in the American South Written in first person narration with the concentration on domestic life on a Southern plantation Gilman highlights the serenity of the slaves who were always called servants But this is not her main theme She does not get into heated politics of abolition the rights of man etc but probes more into the day to day interpersonal relations between master and servant and their inter dependence upon one another The book is a cultural report of what is not of what ought to be She neither condemns nor lauds Southern domestic life but presents a fictionalized story line based on her experiences Her work has long been valued for the spirit and fidelity with which she has painted rural and home life The book shows habits of keen observation and an artist like power of grouping and character development A variety of human emotions are stirred including laughter and tears as such events as births weddings and funerals are covered Her writing has stood the test of time and many people have enjoyed her books and poetry

Recollections of a Southern Matron Caroline Gilman, 2015-03-07 THE SOUTHERN MATRON was penned in the same spirit and with the same object as the New England Housekeeper to present as exact a picture as possible of local habits and manners Every part except the love passages is founded in events of actual occurrence Should it be thought that the views of human life in the two works as has been suggested in private have too much sunshine about them I can only reply that to have made different descriptions I must have resorted to imagination instead of fact as far as my personal observation is concerned Perhaps had I examined the details of the police courts for my Northern sketch or the registry of the magistrate freeholders for my Southern I might have found gloomier scenes but they would not have been such as Clarissa Packard and Cornelia Wilton would recognise in their daily experience Some apology may be necessary as a matter of taste for the frequent introduction of the negro dialect but the careful reader will perceive that it has only been done when essential to the development of individual character I am indebted to one Northern and two Southern friends for the original materials of the story of Betsey the servant maid the Deer Hunt and My brother Ben s education all of which I have modified to my narrative
