Ritual and Rhythm in Electoral Systems Graeme Orr,2016-03-09 Why do we vote in schools What is the social meaning of secret balloting What is lost if we vote by mail or computers rather than on election day What is the history and role of drinking and wagering in elections How does the electoral cycle generate the theatre of election night and inaugurations Elections are key public events in a secular society the only real coming together of the social whole Their rituals and rhythms run deep Yet their conduct is invariably examined in instrumental ways as if they were merely competitive games or liberal apparatus Focusing on the political cultures and laws of the UK the US and Australia this book offers an historicised and generalised account of the intersection of electoral systems and the concepts of ritual rhythm and the everyday which form the basis of how we experience elections As a novel contribution to the theory of the law of elections this book will be of interest to researchers students administrators and policy makers in both politics and law Impact of

Extreme Right Parties on Immigration Policy Joao Carvalho,2013-09-05 Drawing on a mixed research methodology with a strong qualitative character this book traces the political impact of the British National Party in the UK the Front National in France and the Lega Nord in Italy by exploring their contagion effects on immigration politics and policy in particular over the patterns of inter party competition public behaviour and policy developments This book suggests that extreme right party impact on immigration politics and policy is an outcome of the extreme right parties electoral threats to established parties alongside the agency of mainstream political elites It also highlights the decline in the intensity of extreme right parties contagion effects on public attitudes to immigration throughout the late 2000s or the potential overstatement of this political process in the past Featuring detailed case studies of the UK France and Italy as three mature multi party democracies where the extreme right was on the rise during the past decade this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of populism extremism European politics and comparative and party politics Official Report of the Debates of the House

Parliament. House of Commons,1920 The New Voter in Western Europe B. Cautrès,A. Muxel,2011-07-18 This book

presents the main results of an electoral panel study which is both unique and innovative not only in French political research but also among Western European electoral studies The survey was conducted among a sample of 1 846 French voters interviewed on four separate occasions 2007 Presidential and Legislative elections Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,2008 Individual electoral registration Great Britain: Cabinet Office,2011-06-30 This White Paper and draft legislation sets out the next stage in the Coalition Programme for Government on improving the political system Within the Coalition Programme was the ambition to reduce electoral fraud by speeding up implementation of Individual Electoral Registration and this Paper sets out detailed proposals to achieve that objective At present the electoral register is compiled by household and relies on trusting that those who register to vote are eligible Individual Electoral Registration requires each elector to register to vote individually and for each elector to provide personal identifiers for verification The White Paper sets out a plan to accelerate and implement Individual Electoral Registration in line with the Coalition Agreement by 2014 and before the next UK Parliamentary general election The Government will also drop the previous Government s plans for a voluntary phase but instead have a transition period which means electors who do not register by 2014 will not lose their entitlement to vote in the 2015 General Election New electors postal and proxy voters will though need to register under the new system to be able to vote Alongside this legislation a number of Data Pilot Schemes will be launched that will compare the local electoral registers against those of public databases for accuracy and identify unregistered electors eligible to vote The legislation will also look at modernising the electoral registration in general including allowing Electoral Registration Officers to offer more choice in registering including online giving people greater control over verification of their eligibility and once Parliament is satisfied end the annual canvass of households as the primary means of maintaining the completeness and accuracy of the register
