Chapters discuss key issues related to post genocidal periods those that need to be addressed in order to establish stability in a wounded land and populace as well as to prevent future genocides The final chapter asks whether bringing perpetrators to justice has any impact in breaking impunity ensuring deterrence and bringing about reconciliation The contributors to the volume are all noted scholars some of whom specialize in the study of genocide and others who specialize in such areas as early warning peacekeeping and sanctions

International Organizations and Military Affairs Hylke Dijkstra, 2016-02-05 From the UN Department of Peacekeeping Operations to the NATO International Staff and the European External Action Service international bureaucrats make decisions that affect life and death In carrying out their functions these officials not only facilitate the work of the member states but also pursue their own distinct agendas This book analyzes how states seek to control secretariats when it comes to military operations by international organizations It introduces an innovative theoretical framework that identifies different types of control mechanisms The book presents six empirical chapters on the UN NATO and EU secretariats It provides new data from a unique dataset and in depth interviews It shows that member states employ a wide range of control mechanisms to reduce the potential loss of influence They frequently forfeit the gains of delegation to avoid becoming dependent on the work of secretariats Yet while states invest heavily in control this book also argues that they cannot benefit from the services of secretariats and keep full control over outcomes in international organizations In their delegation and control decisions states face trade offs and have to weigh different cost categories the costs of policy administrative capacity and agency loss This book will be of interest to scholars postgraduates and officials in international organizations and national governments dealing with questions of international political economy security studies and
