Abraham Lincoln Memorial: Honoring the 16th President - Research Paper Essay

Introduction

In honor of Abraham Lincoln for his role as the sixteenth President of the USA, the government approved a decision to construct a memorial. It is situated at the National Mall to the west, in Washington D.C (Simpson 51). The architect and the designer of the monument were Henry Bacon and Daniel Chester French respectively. Daniel came up with the statue's design in 1920. Piccirilli Brothers and Jules Guerin also made significant contributions during the construction of the monument. Guerin was responsible for paintings while Piccirilli Brothers made the carvings. The statue is among the many national symbols that are highly upheld in the United States. As a result, it has served as a tourist destination as well as a symbolic centre since its launching in 1922.

Historical Background

Initially, a statue, Lot Flannery, had been constructed to honor the slain president. A statute by Lot Flannery was erected in honor of the slain American President in 1868. It was built in the District of Columbia. However, demands were made which wanted the right recognition of America's slain president. As a result, Congress took up the responsibility by passing a bill allowing for the construction of a monument in honor of the late president (Simpson 62). It was in 1867 that Congress passed the law that allowed for the development of the memorial. The design of the statue was assigned to the Clark Mills, who was a skilled sculptor. Mill's design reflected the national spirit. He created a 21-meter structure with six equestrian as well as the thirty-one pedestrian statue. The statue was then crowned Lincoln's statue, 3.7 meters in height. However, the matter concerning the progress of the monument became dormant. It was until the early 20th century that the issue was revived again. Congress started from where it had been halted by passing six separate bills. The bills were about the incorporation of a new memorial commission. This period, Senator Shelby M. Cullom was in power as the Illinois senator. However, due to the opposition of Speaker Joe Cannon, the first five bills were met with defeat. Fortunately, the sixth bill known as Senate Bill 1949 was passed. On December 13, 1910, the bill was introduced. And in the following year, the commission held its first meeting. Then president, William Haft, was elected as it's the first Chairman. Consequentially, the efforts of the organization resulted in the approval of the location for the construction of the monument in 1913.

The plans on the commission came into question. According to many, Henry Bacon's Greek design of the temple was not fit for the peaceful nature of Lincoln's character. Instead, the proposal made was merely a log cabin shrine. Besides, the site met some opposition too. Many viewed the site as too inaccessible or swampy. Union Station, among other venues, was put into the suggestion (Pinsker 175). However, the commission stood by its recommendations. According to the commission, the site which was located at the Washington Monument-Capitol axis that overlooked the Potomac was ideal.

On February 12, 1914, the project got underway. This was after Congress had approved with the
