Progress for Children Patricia Moccia, 2009 Undernutrition contributes to the deaths of about 5 6 million children under five in the developing world each year It can lead to poor school performance and dropout it threatens girls future ability to bear healthy children and it perpetuates a generational cycle of poverty This volume of Progress for Children reports on the world's performance in improving nutrition in young children a crucial step towards meeting the Millennium Users' Needs Report on Play for Children with Disabilities Mara Allodi Westling, Tamara Zappaterra, 2019-11-05 The needs of children and parents about play when the child has a disability are explored by mean on surveys to disability associations and families were collected during 2016 in 30 countries by members of the EU COST LUDI network Play for children with disability The users needs concerning play for children with disabilities are also explored by mean of case studies at a country level based on literature reviews of avialable reports and emprirical studies in Finland Lithuania and Sweden Work and the Well-Being of Poor Families with Children Andrea L. Ziegert, Dennis H. Sullivan, 2022-09-02 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title This work assesses the possibilities and limitations of reducing poverty among families with children by increasing the work effort of the adults in those families Following a historical review of family poverty since 1995 the authors present several policy simulations including increased employment a higher minimum wage more generous tax credits a child allowance and reduced childcare or medical expenses Specific policy proposals including the proposals of the Biden Administration are assessed using four criteria reducing child poverty equitable treatment of the poorest groups promotion of self sufficiency and cost effectiveness. The authors conclude that while no single policy is able to reduce family poverty by half while meeting the other criteria several combinations of policies have the potential to do so Handbook on Positive Development of Minority Children and Youth Natasha J. Cabrera, Birgit Levendecker, 2017-02-07 This Handbook presents current research on children and youth in ethnic minority families It reflects the development currently taking place in the field of social sciences research to highlight the positive adaptation of minority children and youth It offers a succinct synthesis of where the field is and where it needs to go It brings together an international group of leading researchers and in view of globalization and increased migration and immigration it addresses what aspects of children and youth growing in ethnic minority families are universal across contexts and what aspects are more context specific The Handbook examines the individual family peers and neighborhood policy factors that protect children and promote positive adaptation It examines the factors that support children's social integration psychosocial adaptation and external functioning Finally it looks at the mechanisms that explain why social adaptation occurs

Rights and Wrongs of Children's Work M. F. C. Bourdillon,2010 Explores the place of labor in children's lives and child development By incorporating recent theoretical advances in childhood studies and in child development the authors argue for the need to re think assumptions that underlie current policies on child labor Proposes a new approach to promote

Multisystem Inflammatory Syndrome in Children Angela Mauro, Giovanna Ferrara, Teresa Giani, 2024-03-28 Since April 2020 pediatric patients in Europe and the USA were reported presenting Kawasaki Disease like shock syndrome These patients showed pictures of variable severity up to multiorgan involvement and hyper inflammation sometimes requiring intensive care The CDC later defined this condition as Multisystem Inflammatory Syndrome in Children MIS C The following diagnostic criteria were established age 24 hours blood chemistry tests compatible with an inflammatory state involvement of at least 2 organs or systems severe clinical conditions requiring hospitalization exclusion of other possible diagnoses recent exposure 4 weeks to SARS CoV 2 or positive nasopharyngeal swab or previous infection ascertained on serological examination The immunopathogenesis of MIS C is unclear but overlapping features with Kawasaki disease suggestive of vasculitis and a likely autoimmune etiology has been described An Introduction to Early Childhood Studies Trisha Maynard, Nigel Thomas, 2004-10-18 An Introduction to Early Childhood Studies is a comprehensive text that has been designed to provide students with an introduction to the main theories and issues within the field of early childhood studies The book adopts a multi discplinary approach and pulls together all the key themes involved in the study of young children and childhood Written by a team of leading academics and practitioners this is a lively and engaging text that will be a core text for all those involved in the study of childhood Observing Children in Their Natural Worlds Anthony D. Pellegrini, John Hoch, Frank James Symons, 2013 This text shows readers how to conduct observational methods research tools used to describe and explain behaviours as they unfold in everyday settings The methods presented are drawn from psychology education family studies sociology and anthropology but the primary focus is on children in school family and Play and Health in Childhood Julia Whitaker, Alison Tonkin, 2023-09-08 Taking a rights based approach social settings to the interdependence of play and health in childhood this text argues that the child's right to health and development cannot be satisfied without also the fulfillment of their right to play Underpinned by theory and real life case stories drawn from practice and family life Whitaker and Tonkin present what is known about the benefits of play and its potential to address the pressing health needs in the short and long terms of the youngest generation They define and discuss the concepts of childhood play health and human rights before exploring how play interacts with the four fundamental principles of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child non discrimination best interests life survival and development and inclusion and participation The book then investigates how practitioners can advocate for the child's right to play to meet all their health and development needs It presents numerous examples of best practice from a range of settings including hospitals schools community initiatives charities families and more and incorporates the voices of children as they imagine a future in which play is elevated to a central position in their lives allowing for the achievement of lifelong health and happiness Exploring children's rights from a practical perspective this accessible book is essential reading for students and practitioners in healthcare social work community work early years and education Parents with Mental and/or Substance Use Disorders and their Children, volume III Anja Wittkowski, Joanne Nicholson, Jean Lillian Paul, Geneviève Piché, 2025-07-30 Families living with parental mental and or substance use disorders continue to face considerable biopsychosocial challenges with complex pathways to mitigating risk enhancing resilience and supporting recovery An ecological life span approach to improving outcomes for all family members infants children adolescents and adults who are parents requires careful consideration of sociocultural conditions life stages and developmental ages alongside family focused needs goals and plans In addition community contexts policy developments and practice innovation play roles in contributing to the wellbeing and functioning of all family members. The risk conveyed to all family members by parental mental and or substance use disorders is great Fortunately the opportunities to intervene are plentiful and varied However in many cases interventions are unspecified untested and not brought to scale in regional state or national initiatives. We may have the requisite knowledge to inform policy and practice but this evidence may not be applied to effect innovation or change suggesting the need for
