

Community Service Verification

Dear [Mr/Ms./Mrs. Last Name]:

I am writing to confirm that Ms. Jane Doe completed community service with the Community Animal Shelter. It gives me pleasure to inform you that Ms. Doe served consistently and eagerly, providing substantial support for our organizational goals. Therefore, I am pleased to verify that Ms. Doe completed 100 hours of community service with our organization.

Specifically, Ms. Doe helped clean the cages and assisted with other basic maintenance tasks. She spent extra time during her volunteer experience to play with the animals, petting the cats and taking the dogs out to the recreation area. Ms. Doe made herself available as needed to help with the basic care our animals need, proving herself to be a real asset to our team.

The Community Animal Shelter is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing care to animals throughout the city. We shelter animals in need, providing lifesaving care and promoting rehabilitation and adoption. In order to offer the best care possible for our animals, we rely on volunteers. These volunteers interact with the animals for their comfort, recreation and health. When Ms. Doe approached us about volunteer opportunities, I was struck by her obvious love of animals. Her interest in helping our four-legged friends made her a good fit, and her time volunteering was meaningful for her and the animals.

For your reference, a certificate for the same has been enclosed with this letter. If any other information is needed, please feel free to contact me at 555-555-5555.

Sincerely,

and the Liberal Arts Craig A. Rimmerman,2009-01-01 What are the connections between service learning and a liberal arts education That is the central question of this volume and scholars from a variety of disciplines chemistry economics education philosophy political science psychology public policy religious studies and sociology answer it here The scholars collected by Craig A Rimmerman ground their essays in the positive assumption that service learning contributes significantly to students moral ethical and social development within the broader context of a liberal arts education The contributors engage in the critique of service and then respond to that critique within the context of their individual chapters Readers will have a better understanding of what does and does not work in and out of the classroom and why The practical appeal of this volume lies in the fact that other teachers and students who are interested in both developing their own service learning courses and connecting those courses to broader issues of citizenship democracy theories of justice ethics and morality can find advice and applications of successful service learning endeavors within it BOOK JACKET Ebony
