Section VIII:	Security and Privacy
Title:	Privacy Manual
Chapter:	Definitions
Current Effective Date:	December 5, 2003
Revision History:
Original Effective Date:	April 14, 2003

Key privacy terms found in the NC Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) Privacy Policies are defined below.

Access to Health Information: Refers to the right of DHHS clients to request to inspect and copy their health information in any designated record set maintained by a DHHS agency.

Accounting of Disclosures: Refers to the right of DHHS clients to a statement of the disclosures made by a DHHS agency of their health information, for a period of time not to exceed six years prior to the date of such request. Such requests may not include dates prior to April 14, 2003.

Agency: An administrative unit of government. Within DHHS, an agency may be a division, office, facility, or subunit of any of these organizations. Within State Government, another department and its divisions, offices, facilities, or subunits may also be referred to as an 'agency'.

Amendment of Health Information: Refers to the right of clients to request to amend or correct information that is contained in any DHHS covered health care component's designated record set.

Authorization: Permission given to a DHHS agency by a client, or a client's personal representative, to disclose the client's individually identifiable health information to a specific person or entity, for a specific purpose. Although most authorizations are written, there are specific circumstances when verbal authorization is acceptable.

Business Associate: A person, organization, or agency that provides specific functions, activities, or services that involve the use, creation, or disclosure of individually identifiable health information for, or on behalf of, a HIPAA covered health care component. Examples of business associate functions are activities such as claims processing or administration, data analysis, utilization review, quality assurance, billing, benefit management, practice management, and repricing; and legal, actuarial, accounting, consulting, data aggregation, management, administrative, accreditation, or financial services.

- DHHS Internal Business Associate: A non-covered unit within the same division or unit in another DHHS division that performs HIPAA covered functions for, or on behalf of, a covered health care component.
- DHHS External Business Associate: Another state government department or public/private contractor that performs HIPAA covered functions for, or on behalf of, a covered health care component.
