HOPEFUL - an autobiography Omid Djalili, 2014-08-28 Omid Djalili's childhood was unconventional to say the least. He was raised in a beautiful chaotic cramped colourful and legally dubious guesthouse where his parents fed and watered Iranian nationals flocking to the UK. Over twenty years almost 2000 cousins passed through the Djalili's doors and the young Omid played translator to each. Although these years taught him a lot about the rich tapestry of life, this parenting by committee led to a slightly chequered school career which saw Omid taking his A levels a record six times and eventually fake his own university entrance papers. Desperate to be free of his cramped living quarters, he escapes to the University of Ulster where he lives a life of wonderful solitude. Full of the warmth and intelligence that makes Omid such a successful comedian and sought after actor, this memoir takes us on an incredible and laugh out loud funny journey through an unusually British life.

Home Efa E. Etoroma, 2024-02-26 Where are you from? Where is your home? Do you miss home? These are questions that Efa E. Etoroma, born in Nigeria, has frequently been asked since moving to Canada in 1978. In this autoethnography, the Concordia University of Edmonton professor examines his views on what home really is and his struggles to feel a true sense of belonging anywhere he has lived. Explained with candor and occasional vulnerability, Home: Reflections on Marginality and Belonging is told from the perspective of a marginalized Black Christian immigrant, but his story is relatable to anyone who has felt alienated or had a crisis of identity. Efa shares his personal experiences of growing up in post-colonial northern Nigeria, raised Anglican amongst mostly Muslims and fleeing to the southern region as a child shortly after the start of the Nigerian Civil War. Then he recounts moving to Canada to attend school but staying upon meeting his future Canadian-born wife. He explores his connection with Black Pentecostal churches as well as his thoughts on grieving death and aging away from his homeland Supporting these experiences Efa incorporates an abundance of research for a wider cultural and social context Home Reflections on Marginality and Belonging is part snapshot of the author s life a way of identifying who he is and where he is from part answer to the questions Where are you from and Where is your home and part exploration of the micro level contradictions of social change brought about by modern society Post-Colonial Cameroon Joseph Takougang, Julius A. Amin, 2018-06-13 In this unique volume leading scholars examine how Cameroonians organize and experience their lives under Cameroonian leadership and local responses to that leadership The volume offers essential case studies that allow us to examine the lives of ordinary people in post colonial Africa through five lenses politics society and culture economy international relations and migration It places the nation s contemporary challenges within a broader political economic and socio cultural context and uses that to make recommendations for future directions The book also celebrates areas in which the country has done well and calls on its citizens to build on those achievements This volume is forward looking and as such raises important questions about issues of development ethnicity wealth poverty and class Competition Science Vision, 2006-06 Competition Science Vision monthly magazine is published by Pratiyogita Darpan Group in India and is one of the best Science monthly magazines available for medical entrance examination students in India Well qualified professionals of Physics Chemistry Zoology and Botany make contributions to this magazine and craft it with focus on providing complete and to the point study material for aspiring candidates The magazine covers General Knowledge Science and Technology news Interviews of toppers of examinations study material of Physics Chemistry Zoology and Botany with model papers reasoning test questions facts quiz contest general awareness and mental ability test in every monthly issue Latin for Common Entrance 13+ Revision Guide (for the June 2022 exams) N.
