Reclaiming Afrikan Queer Perspectives On Sexual And Gender Identities:

Reclaiming Afrikan Matabeni, Zethu, 2014-10-25 Reclaiming Afrikan queer perspectives on sexual and gender identities is a collaboration and collection of art photography and critical essays interrogating the meanings and everyday practices of queer life in Africa today In Reclaiming Afrikan authors activists and artists from Nigeria Uganda Zambia Kenya and South Africa offer fresh perspectives on queer life how gender and sexuality can be understood in Africa as ways of reclaiming identities in the continent Africa is known to be harsh towards people with non conforming genders and sexual identities It is within this framework that Reclaiming Afrikan exists to respond to such violations and to offer alternative ways of thinking and being in the continent The book appropriates Afrika and queer to affirm sexual identities that are ordinarily shamed and violated by prejudice and hatred The use of k in Afrika signals an appropriation of an identity and belonging that is always detached from a queer person queer in this book is understood as an inquiry into the present as a critical space that pushes the boundaries of what is embraced as normative The artists and authors included in this text are queer themselves and occupy spaces that speak back to hegemony For many this position challenges various norms on gender sexuality and existence and offers a subversive way of being

The African Perspective of Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity in Higher Education Mfundo Mandla Masuku, Mbongeni Shadrack Sithole, 2025-05-23 This book uses a deconstruction context to highlight the challenges faced by the LGBTQIA communities in African Higher Education The discursive approach adopted in the book is critical in enabling the editors and their authors space to articulate the subtle problematic and context sensitive issues that drive exclusionary and unequal practices that students face in campus life The book goes on to present an advanced argument for integrating African epistemologies such as Ubuntu with social justice frameworks to foster cultural competence and diversity in higher education

Solidarity and Defiant Spirituality Traci C. West, 2019-01-22 How activists in Ghana South Africa and Brazil provide inspiration and strategies for combating the gender violence epidemic in the United States How can the U S learn from the perspectives of anti gender violence activists in South America and Africa as we seek to end intimate violence in this country The U S has consistently positioned itself as a moral exemplar seeking to export its philosophy and values to other societies Yet in this book Traci C West argues that the U S has much to learn from other countries when it comes to addressing gender based violence West traveled to Ghana South Africa and Brazil to interview activists involved in the struggle against gender violence In each of these places as in the United States Christianity and anti black racism have been implicated in violence against women In Ghana and Brazil in particular their Christian colonial and trans Atlantic slave trade histories directly connect with the socioeconomic development of the Americas and historic incidents of rape of black slave women With a transnational focus on religion and racism West brings a new perspective to efforts to systemically combat gender violence Calling attention to forms of violence in the U S and international settings such as marital rape sex trafficking of women and girls domestic violence and the targeting of lesbians the book offers an expansive and nuanced view of how to form activist solidarity in tackling this violence It features bold and inspiring approaches by black women leaders working in each setting to uproot the myriad forms of violence against women and girls Ultimately West calls for us to learn from the lessons of African activists drawing on a defiant African spirituality as an invaluable resource in the quest to combat the seemingly chronic problem of gender based violence

Prismatic Performances April Sizemore-Barber, 2020-09-28 At his 1994 inauguration South African president Nelson Mandela announced the Rainbow Nation at peace with itself and the world This national rainbow notably extended beyond the bounds of racial coexistence and reconciliation to include sexual orientation as a protected category in the Bill of Rights Yet despite the promise of equality and dignity the new government's alliance with neoliberal interests and the devastation of the AIDS epidemic left South Africa an increasingly unequal society Prismatic Performances focuses on the queer embodiments that both reveal and animate the gaps between South Africa's self image and its lived realities It argues that performance has become a key location where contradictions inherent to South Africa's post apartheid identity are negotiated The book spans 30 years of cultural production and numerous social locations and includes a team of black lesbian soccer players who reveal and redefine the gendered and sexed limitations of racialized Africanness white gay performers who use drag and gender subversion to work through questions of racial and societal transformation black artists across the arts who have developed aesthetics that place on display their audiences complicity in the problem of sexual violence and a primarily heterosexual panAfrican online soap opera fandom community who by combining new virtual spaces with old melodramatic tropes allow for extended deliberation and new paradigms through which African same sex relationships are acceptable Prismatic Performances contends that when explicitly queer bodies emerge onto public stages audiences are made intimately aware of their own bodies identifications and desires As the sheen of the New South Africa began to fade these performances revealed the inadequacy and indeed the violence of the Rainbow Nation as an aspirational metaphor Simultaneously they created space for imagining new radical configurations of belonging ethnographic research to analyse how six LGBTQ clergy understand and practice their vocation in the Methodist Church of Southern Africa MCSA. Seemingly marginalised in a denomination which maintains that marriage is only between one man and one woman, this book explores why LGBTQ clergy are motivated to live out their calling in the Church and how they make sense of their positions within it. In doing so, it looks beyond an analysis of a Church based on its official and doctrinal institutional positions on queer people and sexualities and instead uncovers the taken-for-granted ways that gender and sex are inscribed in the way we do things around here. This book is relevant to students and researchers in gender and sexuality studies, African religious studies and sociology of religion. Women in Africa Toyin Falola, Olajumoke

Yacob-Haliso, 2025-05-22 This book introduces readers to the rich and diverse experiences of women across the African continent, covering their socio-cultural, political and economic realities from the precolonial era right up to the modern day. In many precolonial African societies, women were empowered and considered to be important participants in the social structures and political systems that managed their communities, but during the colonial era, women were often marginalized. Now across the continent, women are reasserting their agency. This book explores the various ways in which gender has been constructed in different African cultures across history and how this has impacted the lived experiences of women. The book encompasses a broad range of topics including history, health, sexualities, gender-based violence, motherhood, education, economic activities, science and technology, religion, popular culture, politics, peacebuilding, feminism, literature, social media and migration. Engaging and compelling, this book invites us to think again about the changing roles, identities and contributions of African women across time and space. It is the perfect introduction for any student of gender or African studies, as well as for anyone looking for a reader-friendly guide to the subject. Reimagining Christianity and Sexual

Diversity in Africa Adriaan van Klinken, 2021-12-01 A much-needed exploration of the queer-positive approaches emerging within African Christianity. The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Sexuality Education, 2024-12-23 This Encyclopedia provides a comprehensive map of the field of sexuality education. It offers an entry point for those interested in this topic, providing a robust summary of issues and directing them to its best scholarship. Comprehensive in scope, it covers diverse global locations to highlight the significance of context when defining sexuality education. The rapid development and increase in accessibility of digital technologies, which has broadened sexuality education to include digital and media platforms, is also reflected. The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie Chambers, 2024-10-31 This is an authoritative companion that is global in scope, recognizing the presence of African Diaspora artists across the world. It is a bold and broad reframing of this neglected branch of art history, challenging dominant presumptions about the field. Diaspora pertains to the global scattering or dispersal of, in this instance, African peoples, as well as their patterns of movement from the mid-twentieth century onwards. Chapters in this book emphasize the importance of cross-fertilization, interconnectedness and intersectionality in the framing of African Diaspora art history. The book stresses the complexities of artists born within or living and working within the African continent alongside the complexities of Africa born artists who have migrated to other parts of the world The group of international contributors emphasizes and accentuates the interplay between for example Caribbean art and African Diaspora art or Latin American art and African Diaspora art or Black British art and African Diaspora art The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history the various branches of African studies African American studies African Diaspora studies Caribbean studies and Latin American studies

Contested Borders William J. Spurlin, 2022-06-06 Contested Borders broadens understandings of dissident sexualities in Africa through examining new representations of same sex desire emerging in recent francophone autofictional writing from the Maghreb where long established traditions pertaining to gender and sexuality are brought into contact with new forms of gender and sexual dissidence resulting from the inflection of globally circulating discourses and embodiments of queerness in North Africa and from the experience of emigration and settlement by the writers concerned in France The book analyses specifically how Franco Maghrebi writers Rachid O Abdellah Ta a Eyet Ch kib Djaziri and Nina Bouraoui foreground translation and narrative reflexivity around incommensurable spaces of queerness in order to index their crossings and negotiations of multiple languages histories and cultures By writing in French Spurlin demonstrates that the writers are not merely mimicking the language of their former coloniser but inflecting a European language with discursive turns of phrase indigenous to North Africa thus creating new possibilities of meaning and expression to name their lived experiences of gender and sexual alterity a form of queer translational praxis that destabilises received gender sexual categories both within the Maghreb and in Europe
