

Guide to Intervention with Recorded Books

Update for Educators

In an educational environment characterized by growing student enrollments, stringent demands for Adequate Yearly Progress, and accountability at both the classroom and administrative levels, today's educator is still focused first of all on teaching individual students and meeting their various needs.

Recorded Books are an excellent solution to the problem of instructing students of different ability levels and with different learning challenges—students such as struggling, reluctant, below-grade readers, ESL learners at all stages of proficiency, special education and special needs students, students with IEP's (individual education plans), as well as students diagnosed with Dyslexia and Attention Deficit Disorders.

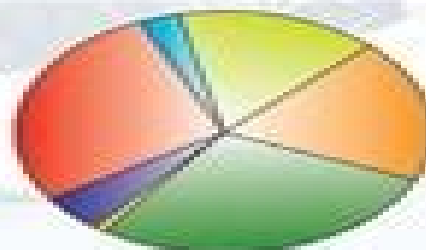

Administrators, curriculum directors, librarians, reading specialists, and classroom teachers all look for ways to meet the varying needs of these diverse student populations—when are often found in a single classroom.

This Guide to Intervention with Recorded Books provides new information on how these educators are using audio support to differentiate instruction in mixed-ability classrooms and for populations with special needs.
