Prt. 110-40, *,2008 New Policies for New Residents Deborah J. Milly,2014-02-07 In recent decades many countries have experienced both a rapid increase of in migration of foreign nationals and a large scale devolution of governance to the local level The result has been new government policies to promote the social inclusion of recently arrived residents In New Policies for New Residents Deborah J Milly focuses on the intersection of these trends in Japan Despite the country s history of restrictive immigration policies some Japanese favor a more accepting approach to immigrants Policies supportive of foreign residents could help attract immigrants as the country adjusts to labor market conditions and a looming demographic crisis As well local citizen engagement is producing more inclusive approaches to community Milly compares the policy discussions and outcomes in Japan with those in South Korea and in two similarly challenged Mediterranean nations Italy and Spain All four are recent countries of immigration and all undertook major policy innovations for immigrants by the 2000s In Japan and Spain local NGO local government collaboration has influenced national policy through the advocacy of local governments South Korea and Italy included NGO advocates as policy actors and partners at the national level far earlier as they responded to new immigration producing policy changes that fueled local networks of governance and advocacy In all these cases Milly finds nongovernmental advocacy groups have the power to shape local governance and affect national policy though in different ways From Subject to Citizen Alastair Davidson,1997-05-12 This important theoretically sophisticated work explores the concepts of liberal democracy citizenship and rights Grounded in critical original research the book examines Australia s political and legal institutions and traces the history and future of citizenship and the state in Australia The central theme is that making proof of belonging to the national culture a precondition of citizenship is inappropriate for a multicultural society such as Australia This becomes an object lesson for the multicultural regional polities forming throughout the world
