Senate, Collaboration in a Data-Rich World Luis M. Camarinha-Matos, Hamideh Afsarmanesh, Rosanna Fornasiero, 2017-09-06 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 18th IFIP WG 5.5 Working Conference on Virtual Enterprises PRO-VE 2017 held in Vicenza Italy in September 2017. The 68 revised full papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 159 submissions. They provide a comprehensive overview of identified challenges and recent advances in various collaborative network (CN) domains and their applications with a strong focus on the following areas: collaborative models, platforms and systems for data-rich worlds, manufacturing ecosystem and collaboration in Industry 4.0, big data analytics and intelligence, risk performance and uncertainty in collaborative data-rich systems, semantic data service discovery, retrieval and composition in a collaborative data-rich world, trust and sustainability analysis in collaborative networks, value creation and social impact of collaboration in data-rich worlds, technology development, platforms supporting collaborative systems, collective intelligence and collaboration in advanced emerging applications, collaborative manufacturing and factories of the future, e-health and care, food and agribusiness and crisis disaster management. Tribal Lobbying Matters United States. Finally declassified and released after five years in the making the Senate Intelligence Committee's report on the CIA's torture program which describes in excruciating detail what Obama has called harsh methods inconsistent with our values as a nation is now available to the American public. Citizens who have a right to know the truth. Considered one of the most important government documents ever to be published the torture report compiles the Senate committee's findings of the CIA's program to detain and interrogate terrorist threats in the aftermath of the September 11 attacks from 2001 to 2006 during the Bush administration. Among other controversial conclusions the report has found that the CIA's enhanced interrogation techniques were not effective in acquiring intelligence to avert terrorist threats. The study also shows that the CIA misled the public Congress the Department of Justice and even the White House on the effectiveness and the scope and severity of their interrogation techniques. The exhaustive and disturbing account also provides grisly accounts on horrific practices that occurred in CIA black sites prisoners experienced sleep deprivation in stressful positions for up to 180 hours being stripped and shackled hooded and dragged down a long corridor while being punched waterboarding and rectal feeding Based on six million CIA documents and requiring 40 million to complete the entire 6 000 page report still remains classified Only 525 pages of summary have been published with 7 percent of its content redacted and it is now at the disposal of American readers who have the opportunity to learn what occurred during this dark chapter in modern American history The Senate report delivers a scathing shocking and controversial judgment and gives us much to think about in terms of our longstanding position on freedom democracy dignity and human rights
