canadian journal of urban research , Law, Security and Migration Laura Planas Gifra, 2024-09-09 This book analyzes the impact of the increasing securitization of migration within the international legal and political order Migration has increasingly become a security issue Examining this tendency towards the securitization of migration around the world this book argues that it is indicative of a shift in the international order towards geopolitical and security strategies and away from cooperation and multilateralism States are now more inclined to produce national legislation in the fields of countering terrorism migration and security than dealing with such global issues through international cooperation and international norm making As such this book demonstrates they tend to prioritize national rather than international interests in a radical shift away from the universal rights and liberal values that were dominant at the end of the 20th century to a model based on geopolitical interests The securitization of migration is a process that not only affects the rights of migrants but ushers in a new international legal and political order This book will be of considerable interest to scholars and professionals in the fields of international law international relations migration security and human rights Handbook on Migration and Security Philippe Bourbeau, 2017-04-28 This Handbook provides a state of the art analysis of the critically important links between migration and security in a globalising world and presents original contributions suggesting innovative and emerging frontiers in the study of the securitization of migration Experts from different fields reflect on their respective conceptualisations of the migration security nexus and consider how an interdisciplinary and multifaceted dialogue can stimulate and enrich our understanding of the securitisation of migration in the contemporary world Research and Development, a 16-year Compendium (1963-78) United States. Employment and Training Administration, 1979 USA Directory research and development in labour market vocational training employment etc 1963 to 1978 The EU's Policy on the Integration of Migrants Pierre Georges Van Wolleghem, 2018-09-26 This book addresses a timely yet largely overlooked issue in political science the integration of migrants in a multilevel polity In a context characterised by the increasing salience of migration related questions and despite the gradual construction of a European Union immigration policy over the past two decades no competence was ever created on integration matters The emergence of a consistent ensemble of soft instruments in this policy realm in the 2000s unveiled an original pattern of EU policy formation Can there be Europeanization without an EU competence That is the question this original piece of research tackles It shows how the way in which the policy emerged at EU level affected policy outputs adopted thereafter throughout the policy cycle Mixing qualitative and quantitative methods it explains the development of the EU integration policy and examines its main policy device the European Integration Fund from negotiation to implementation Resources in Education, 1999 The Economics of Inequality, Poverty, and Discrimination in the 21st Century Robert S. Rycroft, 2013-03-07 Leading scholars examine the conflicting paradigms of affluence and destitution in the United States as well as other free societies and discuss the influence of education race and status on economic mobility While recent catastrophic events in New Orleans and Haiti may have magnified issues of social inequity leaders have debated over poverty and discrimination for decades Are the poor disadvantaged by the institutions of society or by the choices they make Through two insightful volumes the author examines differing academic and political perspectives to help shed light on the causes of poverty and inequality the role that gender race age or sexual preference plays in determining opportunity and the effectiveness of current social and economic policies in balancing the inequity among disparate groups The Economics of Inequality Poverty and Discrimination in the 21st Century consists of 2 volumes containing 32 papers divided into 5 categories measurement inequality and mobility institutions and choices demographic groups and discrimination and policy The papers written by economists sociologists philosophers and lawyers deal with the extent of inequality in the United States and how it compares to other countries and the newly emerging evidence on the relationship between inequality and mobility within a society
