

Historical Context of Pride and Prejudice: Research Paper

Topic: Literature | Words: 959 | Pages: 3

The novel Pride and Prejudice written by Jane Austen are considered to be a significant contributor to the world of literature made in 1813. It is important to stress that Jane Austen finished her work in 1797 when she was only twenty-one. The novel has rich historical value because it underwent two attempts of entering the literature world being named First Impressions. The themes of human social standing and morality being closely interacted with historical factors are the principal elements of the novel; though it was published at the beginning of the 19th century, the novel managed to reflect the influence of 18th-century history and national culture of this period.

The novel Pride and Prejudice is a reflection of time. It touched on the basic problem concepts of morality such as pride, misunderstanding, or misinterpretation. It should be noted that British society of that period faced the impact of proper etiquette formation and social standing. The author could not but reflected these elements in the novel; it is difficult to describe the possible flow of events and characters' behavior in case the novel was written several years earlier. The features of the 18th century when British society, to be more exact its upper classes faced the process of socializing, were clearly defined in the novel.

Jane Austen tried to show the basic characteristics of the epoch she lived in. The novel states that the upper classes' way of life was merely focused on the socialization opportunities rather than just working to provide a good level of life for the families. What influenced such a position in society?... The novel managed to disclose that the problem of
