Challenges at the Syntax-Semantics-Pragmatics Interface Robert D. Van Valin Jr., 2021-05-18 This volume brings together recent scholarship addressing a number of significant issues in linguistic theory and description including verb classification case marking comparative constructions noun phrase structure clause linkage and reference tracking in discourse These topics are discussed with respect to a wide range of languages including Bamunka Bantu Biblical Hebrew Japanese Persian Pitjantjatjara Australia Russian and Taiwan Sign Language The theoretical perspective employed in these analyses is that of Role and Reference Grammar RRG a theory which strives to describe language structure and grammatical phenomena in terms of the interaction of syntax semantics and discourse pragmatics RRG differs from other parallel architecture constructionally oriented theories in important ways particularly with respect to the ability to formulate cross linguistic generalizations The ability of RRG to facilitate the formulation of cross linguistic generalizations is exemplified well in the contributions to this volume As such this text makes important theoretical and descriptive contributions to contemporary linguistic discussions

Language, Education, and Development Suzanne Romaine, 1992 Papua New Guinea s struggle for development is intimately bound up with the history of Tok Pisin an English based pidgin which is the product of nineteenth century colonialism in the Pacific The language has since become the most important lingua franca in the region being spoken by more than a million people in a highly multilingual society Suzanne Romaine examines some of the changes that are taking place in Tok Pisin as it becomes the native language of the younger generation of rural and urban speakers. These linguistic processes which are by no means complete have to be understood in the socio historical context of colonial expansion and strategies for socio economic development in the post colonial era. Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02. South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy. The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages. Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools. The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully. The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience.

Studies in the Pronunciation of English Susan Ramsaran, 2015-07-03. First published in 1990 this collection celebrates the life and work of Professor A C Gimson four years after his untimely death in 1985. A C Gimson Professor of Phonetics at University College London 1966-83 was the most distinguished and influential phonetician of his day concentrating specifically on English speech. This collection of essays on phonetics and phonology of English written by linguists from all over the world celebrates his life and work. The work is divided into five sections: prosody, phonology and phonetic description, accents of English and RP, other accents of English focusing on those non native speakers and phonostylistics. The twenty eight chapters cover a very wide range of topics and the contributors offer a stimulating variety of approaches with the emphasis on data based objectivity. Balancing description and theory with application this volume provides a serious and coherent contribution to the academic study of English pronunciation. Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 2009.

J.M. Coetzee and the Archive Marc Farrant, Kai Easton, Hermann Wittenberg, 2021-03-25. Making extensive use of the rich archival material contained within the Coetzee collections in Texas and South Africa from the earliest drafts and notebooks to the research notes and digital records that document his later career as both writer and academic this volume investigates the historical cultural and aesthetic contexts of Coetzee's oeuvre. Cutting edge and interdisciplinary in approach the book looks both at the prolific archival traces of Coetzee's early and middle work as well as examines his more recent work which has yet to be archived and a wide range of materials beyond the manuscripts including family albums school notebooks and correspondence. Navigating Coetzee's interests in areas as diverse as literature photography autobiography philosophy animals and embodied life this is also an exploration of the archive as both theory and practice. It raises questions about the tensions contradictions and discoveries of archival research and suggests that a literary engagement with the past is crucial to a recovery of culture in the present Global Perspective on Issues and Trends in Educational Translanguaging Bautista, Jude Cañero, Kim, Jean, 2025-05-29 The growing superdiversity around the world now appears to be the norm In traditional English speaking inner circle nations it is becoming increasingly rare to find classrooms with students who come from monocultural and monolingual backgrounds However teaching practices remain based on Anglocentric standards and perspectives even when most of the English speakers in the world are no longer just the monolingual speakers of the language Research in bilingualism and multilingualism reverberate the potential of translanguaging as a pedagogical practice This is to leverage all the linguistic cultural and semiotic resources of learners so that they can actively engage in the language literacy and content area learning processes in the classroom However even though it has gained ground in theory and research it has not been upheld in instructional practice especially in the Anglophone nations While some regions view translanguaging as a pathway to educational justice others face barriers such as limited resources administrative constraints or lack of teacher training Despite its promise concerns remain around the selective use of languages and the risk of reinforcing existing linguistic hierarchies Global Perspective on Issues and Trends in Educational Translanguaging explores translanguaging pedagogies from both monolingual English speaking contexts and multilingual and multicultural contexts It examines a monolingual multilingual pairing of theoretical research and practical perspectives from around the world assessing how translanguaging pedagogies are practiced and researched worldwide This book covers topics such as indigenous studies migrant learners and pedagogy and is a useful resource for educators language experts academicians researchers and scientists Amsterdam Creole Studies ,1977 Transformation ,1989 Debates of the ... Session of the ... Parliament of the House of Assembly South Africa. Parliament. House of Assembly,1952 Heritage and Exchanges Julie Dumonteil,Thierry Gaillat,Yvon Rolland,2015-10-28 This book represents the proceedings of an international seminar held at the University of La Reunion in November 2014 the outcome of a pluridisciplinary project bringing together a number of research centres including the Federation of Research Centers Observatoire Scientifique de Oc an Indien CALTS Hyderabad and AUSTRALEX Adelaide Offering a reflection on scholarship and plural identity constructions with a specific focus on the Indian Ocean area the book provides an in depth discussion of the concepts of heritage and exchanges in Indian Ocean countries The volume is divided into two parts with the first section focusing on the concept of heritage examining intercultural and multilingual legacies which influence the construction and evolution of identity at the level of the individual The second section deals with the notion and dynamics of exchange regarding both educational policies in multilingual and intercultural contexts and multilingual and intercultural language learning processes The heritage and exchanges explored throughout the volume attest to cultural and linguistic pluralities which are part of languages and cultures in contact but which also reveal a plural yet partitioned world influenced by subjective representations This volume is particularly unique given its intense focus on a relatively unexplored geographical area the Indian Ocean home to several English and French speaking countries and endowed with a diverse educational and cultural colonial legacy Furthermore as a result of its interdisciplinary nature and topics this bilingual book will appeal to a wide and international readership interested in questions pertaining to multilingualism and interculturalism in learning teaching and training contexts and will represent an invaluable source of information for academics students and educationalists wishing to specialize in the theory and practice of education
