Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald, 1904 Programming the Built Environment (Routledge Revivals) Wolfgang F. E. Preiser, 2015-07-24 Architectural programming the analysis of any given environment to satisfy users needs has become a given prerequisite to the design process The programming process is often a complicated one users present and future needs must be identified space allowances often predetermined must be considered equipment must be accommodated all in the most cost effective way possible The variety of user groups is as wide as the variety of functions architecture can shelter moreover the different structures and needs of clients that fall within the same use classification differs so greatly that every program presents a new challenge You cannot for example use the same program for every hospital you design In Programming the Built Environment first published in 1985 noted architect Wolfgang F E Preiser has compiled a wide range of architectural programs demonstrating applications of basic principles for different client groups This book will be of interest to students of architecture and planning From Order To Chaos II, Essays: Critical, Chaotic And Otherwise Leo P Kadanoff, 1999-03-01 This book is a compilation of the review papers expositions and some of the technical works of Leo Kadanoff a theoretical physicist The objective is to put together a group of not too technical writing in which he discusses some issues in condensed matter physics hydrodynamics applied mathematics and national policy This expanded edition is divided into five sections The first section contains review papers on hydrodynamics condensed matter physics and field theory Next is a selection of papers on scaling and universality particularly as applied to phase changes A change of pace is provided by a series of papers on the critical analysis of simulation models of urban economic and social development The book concludes with a series of recent papers on complex patterns Each major section has an introduction designed to tie the work together and to provide perspective on the subject matter From Order To Chaos - Essays: Critical, Chaotic And Otherwise: Leo P Kadanoff, 1993-10-13 This book is a compilation of the review papers expositions and some of the technical works of Leo Kadanoff a theoretical physicist The objective is to put together a group of not too technical writing in which he discusses some issues in condensed matter physics hydrodynamics applied mathematics and national policy The volume is divided into four sections The first section contains review papers on hydrodynamics condensed matter physics and field theory Next is a selection of papers on scaling and universality particularly as applied to phase changes A change of pace is provided by a series of papers on the critical analysis of simulation models of urban economic and social development The book concludes with a series of recent papers on turbulence and chaos Each major section has an introduction designed to tie the work together and to provide perspective on the subject matter Examples & Explanations for Wills, Trusts, and Estates , Canadian Architectural Styles Don Mikel, 2025-10-07 Featuring over 1 100 photographs this guide identifies more than 40 important architectural styles in Canada ranging from the nineteenth century Georgian Gothic Revival and Italianate buildings to twentieth and twenty first century Art Deco Mid Century Modern Brutalist and Neo Expressionism The examples are drawn from all across Canada rural small town and urban Meticulously researched and extensively illustrated the book includes heritage homes cottages churches schools and buildings of government and commerce Each chapter provides an introduction to the style followed by carefully selected representative examples from across the country An index to buildings by town or region enables readers to identify and appreciate architectural styles in every part of Canada The result of more than a decade of research and photography this is the first comprehensive field guide to Canadian architectural styles The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown, Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2005-04-11 The role of the writing program administrator is one of diverse activities and challenges and preparation for the position has traditionally come through performing the job itself As a result uninitiated WPAs often find themselves struggling to manage the various requirements and demands of the position and even experienced WPAs often encounter situations on which they need advice The Writing Program Administrator's Resource has been developed to address the needs of all WPAs regardless of background or experience It provides practical applicable tools to effectively address the differing and sometimes competing roles in which WPAs find themselves Readers will find an invaluable collection of articles in this volume addressing fundamental practices and issues encountered by WPAs in their workplace settings and focusing on the hows and whys of writing program administration With formal preparation and training only now beginning to catch up to the very real needs of the WPA this volume offers guidance and support from authoritative and experienced sources educators who have established the definitions and standards of the position who have run into obstacles and surmounted them and who have not just survived but thrived in their roles as WPAs Editors Stuart C Brown and Theresa Enos contribute their own experience and bring together the voices of their colleagues to delineate the intellectual scope and practices of writing program administration as an emerging discipline Established and esteemed leaders in the field offer insights advice and plans of action for the myriad scenarios encountered in the position encouraging WPAs and helping them to realize that they often know more than they think they do This resource is required reading for the new WPA and an essential reference for all who serve in the WPA role As a guidebook for WPAs it is destined to become a fixture on the desk of every educator involved with or interested in administrating writing programs writing centers and writing across the curriculum efforts Income Statistics Needed in Poverty and Youth Employment Programs , 1964 Resources in Education , 1982-04 Language Endangerment and

Language Revitalization Tasaku Tsunoda,2013-02-06 In almost every part of the world minority languages are threatened with extinction At the same time dedicated efforts are being made to document endangered languages to maintain them and even to revive once extinct languages The present volume examines a wide range of issues that concern language endangerment and language revitalization Among other things it is shown that languages may be endangered to different degrees endangerment situations in selected areas of the world are surveyed and definitions of language death and types of language death presented The book also examines causes of language endangerment speech behaviour in a language endangerment situation structural changes in endangered languages as well as types of speakers encountered in a language endangerment situation In addition methods of documentation and of training for linguists are proposed which will enable scholars to play an active role in the documentation of endangered languages and in language revitalization The book presents a comprehensive overview of the field It is clearly written and contains ample references to the relevant literature thus providing useful guidance for further research The author often draws on his own experience of documenting endangered languages and of language revival activities in Australia The volume is of interest to a wide readership including linguists anthropologists sociologists and educators

Broadcasting the Faith Michael E. Pohlman,2021-02-02 Broadcasting the Faith tells the riveting story of the American church's embrace of radio in the early decades of the twentieth century By investigating major radio personalities like Walter Maier Aimee Semple McPherson Harry Emerson Fosdick and Charles Fuller this study considers the implications for theology in America when Christianity moved to the airwaves In the heyday of radio religious radio preachers sought to use their programs to counter the secularization of American culture Ultimately however their programs contributed to secularization by accelerating changes already evident in both the conservative and liberal streams of American Christianity To reach a vast American audience radio preachers transformed their sectarian messages into a religion more suitable to the masses thereby altering the very religion it aimed to preserve To make religion accessible to large and diverse audiences radio preachers accommodated their messages in ways suited to the medium of radio Although religious radio preachers set forth to advance the influence of religion in American society their choice to limit theological substance ironically promoted the secularization of the American church

Perspectives of Mutual Encounters in South Asian History Jamal Malik,2000 The reciprocal relationship between colonialists and the colonised people of India during the crucial period from 1760 to 1860 provides fascinating study material This edited volume explores cultural colonialism by focussing on the ambivalent processes of reciprocal perceptions
