- Morning Started early with a trip to the Port Farmers Market. The lockdown has been rough on the farmers and vendors there. I got there super early and left as quickly as I could but I later learned from one of the farmers there that the police had blocked the access roads to the market due to unrelated crowding. He sent a post out in the afternoon begging clients to come & buy the produce he had left for pennies. I felt so bad for him and I'm not sure he'll bother to come to the market at all next week. I really hope that he does, though.

- Snow peas, kara kara oranges and squashes are in season, so I bought some. There's a pasta dish with squash and snow peas in my future.

- Then went to "Breads Bakery". They have shut down their Port Store but their main bakery is still going. The place wasn't as busy as Jimerson,Ann Gaasch,2013-05-13 The texts focus on preschool aged children children in kindergarten through grade two children in grades three through six and teenagers Each curriculum contains ten ninety minute sessions that should be implemented over a period of ten weeks By employing age appropriate themes to engage the child and provide continuity throughout the sessions the division of material within the curricula assures that the activities reflect the developmental level of the grieving child or adolescent Each person grieves differently and Grief Support Group Curriculum addresses the issues related to mourning while recognizing the importance of individuality in grieving Resources in Education ,2001-10 From Principles of Learning to Strategies for Instruction-with Workbook Companion Robert J. Seidel,Kathy C. Perencevich,Allyson L. Kett,2007-09-23 From Principles of Learning to Strategies for Instruction Part One The purpose of this book is to help educators and training developers to improve the quality of their instruction Unlike other available works the text is not limited to a particular theoretical position Nor is it like many of the instructional design texts which ignore the learning literature Rather it draws upon any and all of those research based principles regardless of learning theory which suggest heuristics to guide instructional strategies The approach of the authors is unique in that they develop a framework or model taxonomy for tasks through which the principles of learning can be related to particular learning processes suggesting distinctive strategies for specific instructional tasks The authors present a four stage model that includes acquisition automaticity near term transfer and far term transfer Workbook Companion Part Two In this Workbook Companion the strategies presented in the original book are expanded by supplying practical and specific strategies to implement of a variety of other subject matters These strategies are based on the needs which the authors currently see and cite in existing educational systems Each chapter concentrates on providing recommended instructional strategies and practical exercises for a specific target group high school age adolescents Contributors supply strategies in the different learning domains including Cognitive Psychomotor Affect and Interpersonal and each individual is responsible for training teachers developing and or evaluating curricula for such training and educating high school students through the development and implementation of curricula Developed for both new and experienced teachers developing curricula for high school adolescents the goal of the Workbook Companion is to provide those in the field of education with strategies to incorporate each of the four domains into their lesson plans regardless of subject area

Land,2010-09-30 For early childhood classrooms where curriculum is increasingly shaped by standards and teachers are pressed for time Beyond Early Literacy offers a literacy method that goes beyond simply developing language arts skills Known as Shared Journal this process promotes young children s learning across content areas including their communication and language abilities writing skills sense of community grasp of diverse social and cultural worlds and understanding of history counting numeracy and time Pairing interactive talk with individual writing in the classroom community this rich method develops the whole child Special features include sample lesson plans rubrics and templates throughout the book children s artifacts including examples of oral and written work teacher accounts examining the use of Shared Journal in the classroom including strategies and suggestions a Companion Website with templates additional resources and video clips of in classroom teaching and examples of exciting ways to use new technologies This two part book is first framed by current theory and research about children s cognitive language and literacy development and an extensive body of research and case studies on the efficacy of the method The second part features strategies from on the ground teachers who have used the process with their students and explores how Shared Journal can be used with new technologies can meet standards and can be appropriate for diverse populations of children This is a fantastic resource for use in early childhood education courses in emergent literacy language arts and curriculum Reading Between the Lines Marion E. Neville Lynch,2005 Reading Between the Lines A Balanced Approach to Literacy is a handbook that will enhance your ability to become a more effective reader It teaches how to read interactively to monitor emotional responses to text and to think outside of the box for a comprehensive interpretation of text Reading Between the Lines also suggests creative ways to link reading and writing effectively to produce summaries critiques and syntheses Content Area Reading and Learning Diane Lapp,James Flood,Nancy Farnan,2016-11-18 How can teachers make content area learning more accessible to their students This text addresses instructional issues and provides a wealth of classroom strategies to help all middle and secondary teachers effectively enable their students to develop both content concepts and strategies for continued learning The goal is to help teachers model through excellent instruction the importance of lifelong content area learning This working textbook provides students maximum interaction with the information strategies and examples presented in each chapter This book is organized around five themes Content Area Reading An Overview The Teacher and the Text The Students The Instructional Program School Culture and Environment in Middle and High School Classrooms Pedagogical features in each chapter include a graphic organizer a chapter overview Think Before Think While and Think After Reading Activities which are designed to integrate students previous knowledge and experience with their new learnings about issues related to content area reading literacy and learning and to serve as catalysts for thinking and discussions This textbook is intended as a primary text for courses on middle and high school content area literacy and learning Dialogue Journal Communication Jana Staton,1988 The thesis of this volume is that writing done by students who control their own topics who have genuine purposes for writing and have a real known audience is quite different and valuable in its own right. It forms a rich source of information about how young students think, manage their social interactions and use language with competence to get things done. By selecting dialogue journal writing as a corpus for analysis, it is possible to observe children's communicative competence in using written language purposefully apart from their ability to master a particular form of writing. The central argument is that dialogue journal communication represents a kind of personal literacy prior to and more comprehensive than the particular literacies emphasized and assessed in schools. The contents include a practitioner's view of the practice itself and a summary of the research study methods developed to analyze interactive written conversations.

Multicultural Education James A. Banks, Cherry A. McGee Banks, 2019-11-12 As diversity continues to increase in the United States, ethnic, cultural, social class and linguistic gaps are widening between teachers and their students. The rapidly changing educational landscape presents unique challenges and opportunities for addressing diversity both creatively and constructively in schools. Multicultural Education helps current and future educators fully understand sophisticated concepts of culture, become more effective practitioners in diverse classrooms and view race, class, gender, social class and exceptionality as intersectional concepts. Now in its tenth edition, this bestselling textbook assists educators to effectively respond to the ways race, social class and gender interact to influence student behavior and learning. Contributions from leading authorities in multicultural education discuss the effects of class and religion on education, differences in educational opportunities for male, female and LGBTQ students and issues surrounding non-native English speakers, students of color and students with disabilities. Contemporary in relevance, this timely volume promotes multicultural education as a process of school reform. Practical advice helps teachers increase student academic achievement, work effectively with parents, improve classroom assessment and benefit from diversity.
