Studies in Empire and Trade John Wynne Jeudwine,1923 From the Pandemic to Utopia Boaventura de Sousa Santos,2023-04-12 The coronavirus pandemic forces us to rethink our contemporaneity It has brought to the surface dimensions of human fragility that partially contradict the euphoria and human hubris of the fourth industrial revolution artificial intelligence It has also aggravated the social inequality and racial discrimination that characterize our societies The book argues that the virus rather than an enemy must be viewed as a pedagogue It is trying to teach us that the deep causes of the pandemic lie in our dominant mode of production and consumption The systemic overload of natural resources creates a metabolic rift between society and nature that destabilizes the habitat of wild animals and the vital cycles of natural regeneration whereby pandemics become an increasingly recurrent phenomenon In trying to take seriously this lesson the book proposes a paradigmatic shift from the current civilizatory model to a new one guided by a more equitable relationship between nature and society and the priority of life both human and non human
