Nobody Heard Me Cry Part 1:

Cry with Me: Part 1 Mabel Ann Pike, 2006-09 Cry With Me is a moving and heartrending personal account by the author about how she grew up and suffered untold hardships and injustices in a war torn and corrupt African country Zimbabwe and how she finally took the courageous step to seek asylum in Britain Mabel who writes from the heart recreates the loving relationship she had as a child with her Shona grandmother a practical woman who though married to a white British man lived simply preferring to sleep on the floor by the stove and eat her bush meals than live by western standards The warm loving relationship with her family her parents and her children shine through the various tragedies and hardships She is ruthlessly honest in describing the inhuman cruelties of the guerrillas freedom fighters or war veterans who murdered and raped her cousin and the Zimbabwean police who arrested and abused her throwing her into a stinking prison when she was nine months pregnant The ultimate poignancy comes from the anguish with which she recreates her sweet daughter Aida's plight dying from a kidney infection in the unhygienic and unbelievably filthy conditions of hospitals in Zimbabwe Though Mabel proved herself to be an enterprising and resourceful businesswoman the persistent harassment of government officials the unrelenting havoc of crime and plunder eventually drove her to seek a new life in Britain the home of her forefathers However the five year long and ongoing delay in granting her asylum with the prospect of her appeal being refused and her being returned to the Zimbabwe hell hole at the age of 53 has been a sword of Damocles over her life resulting in stress and ill health

Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
