Leitch, William E. Cain, Laurie A. Finke, John McGowan, T. Denean Sharpley-Whiting, Jeffrey Williams, 2018 More comprehensive and up to date than ever before The Rebirth of American Literary Theory and Criticism H. Aram Veaser, 2020-11-27 The interviewees of this volume fall into three groups the main players who brought about the rise of theory Fish Gallop Spivak Bhabha a younger group of post theorists B rub Dimock Nealon Warren the anti critique theorists Felski and new order theorists Puchner Wolfe They discuss elemental questions such as trying to grasp what was logic and what was rhetoric trying to see down the road while fog and turmoil held visibility to arm s length and trying to pick legible meanings out of the cultural blanket of deafening noise Theorists were not only good thinkers but also pioneers who were seeking profound transformations Law and Enjoyment Daniel Hourigan, 2015-06-05 This book advocates and develops a critical account of the relationship between law and the largely neglected issue of enjoyment Taking popular culture seriously as a lived and meaningful basis for a wider understanding of law beyond the strictures of legal institutions and professional practices it takes up a range of case studies from film and literature in order to consider how law is iterated through enjoyment and how enjoyment embodies law Drawing on psychoanalytic theory this book addresses issues such as the forced choice to enjoy the law the biopolitics of tyranny the enjoyment of law s contingency the trauma of the law s symbolic codification of pleasure and the futuristic vision of law s transgression In so doing it forges an important case for acknowledging and analyzing the complex relationship between power and pleasure in law one that will be of considerable interest to legal theorists as well as those with interests in the intersection of psychoanalytic and cultural theory The Critical Pulse Jeffrey J. Williams, Heather Steffen, 2012-09-18 This unprecedented anthology asks thirty six leading literary and cultural critics to elaborate on the nature of their profession With the humanities feeling the pinch of financial and political pressures and its disciplines resting on increasingly uncertain conceptual ground there couldn t be a better time for critics to reassert their widespread relevance and purpose These

credos boldly defend the function of criticism in contemporary society and showcase its vitality in the era after theory Essays address literature and politics with some focusing on the sorry state of higher education and others concentrating on teaching and the fate of the humanities All reflect the critics personal particular experiences Deeply personal and engaging these stories move amuse and inspire ultimately encouraging the reader to develop his or her own critical credo with which to approach the world Reflecting on the past looking forward to the future and committed to the power of productive critical thought this volume proves the value of criticism for today s skeptical audiences Contributors Andrew Ross Amitava Kumar Lisa Lowe Vincent B Leitch Craig Womack Jeffrey J Williams Marc Bousquet Katie Hogan Michelle A Mass John Conley Heather Steffen Paul Lauter Cary Nelson David B Downing Barbara Foley Michael B rub Victor Cohen Gerald Graff William Germano Ann Pellegrini Bruce Robbins Kenneth Warren Diana Fuss Lauren Berlant Toril Moi Morris Dickstein Rita Felski David R Shumway Mark Bauerlein Devoney Looser Stephen Burt Mark Greif Kathleen Fitzpatrick Mark McGurl Frances Negron Muntaner Judith Jack Halberstam

Theory of Racelessness Sheena Michele Mason, 2022-05-27 This book presents a skeptical eliminativist philosophy of race and the theory of racelessness a methodological and pedagogical framework for analyzing race and racism It explores the history of skeptical eliminativism and constructionist eliminativism within the history of African American philosophy and literary studies and its consistent connection with movements for civil rights Sheena M Mason considers how current anti racist efforts reflect naturalist conservationist and constructionist reconstructionist philosophies of race that prevent more people from fully confronting the problem of racism not race thereby enabling racism to persist She then offers a three part solution for how scholars and people aspiring toward anti racism can avoid unintentionally upholding racism using literary studies as a case study to show how race often translates into racism itself The theory of racelessness helps more people undo racism by undoing the belief in race

The Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism Mary K. Holland, 2020-06-11 Literature has never looked weirder full of images colors gadgets and footnotes and violating established norms of character plot and narrative structure Yet over the last 30 years critics have coined more than 20 new realisms in their attempts to describe it What makes this decidedly unorthodox literature realistic And if it is then what does realism mean anymore Examining literature by dozens of writers and over a century of theory and criticism about realism The Moral Worlds of Contemporary Realism sorts through the current critical confusion to illustrate how our ideas about what is real and how best to depict it have changed dramatically especially in recent years Along the way Mary K Holland guides the reader on a lively tour through the landscape of contemporary literary studies taking in metafiction ideology posthumanism postmodernism and poststructuralism with forays into quantum mechanics new materialism and Buddhism as well to give us entirely new ways of viewing how humans use language to make sense of and to make the world
