Introducing the IB Diploma Programme Marc Abrioux, Jill Rutherford, 2013-02-14 Schools wishing to introduce the IB diploma programme are faced with major investment in terms of time effort and money in order to become authorised This manual is a resource for schools already offering the diploma as well as for prospective diploma schools Literary analysis for English Literature for the IB Diploma Carolyn P. Henly, Angela Stancar Johnson, 2019-09-02 Build confidence in a range of key literary analysis techniques and skills with this practical companion full of advice and guidance from experienced experts Build analysis techniques and skills through a range of strategies serving as a useful companion throughout the course from critical thinking referencing and citation and the development of a line of inquiry to reflecting on the writing process and constructing essays for Paper 1 and Paper 2 Develop skills in how to approach a text using literary analysis strategies and critical theory for both unseen literary texts the basis of Paper 1 and texts studied in class Learn how to engage with texts so that you can write convincingly and passionately about literature through active reading note taking asking questions and developing a personal response to texts Concise clear explanations help students navigate the IB requirements including advice on assessment objectives and how literary analysis weaves through Paper 1 Paper 2 the HL Essay Individual Oral and the Learner Profile Engaging activities are provided to test understanding of each topic and develop skills for the exam guiding answers are available to check responses Civic Multiculturalism in Singapore Terri-Anne Teo, 2019-06-05 This book is about multiculturalism broadly defined as the recognition respect and accommodation of cultural differences Teo proposes a framework of multicultural citizenship that includes group specific rights and intercultural dialogue by problematising three issues a the unacknowledged misrecognition of non citizens within the scholarship of multiculturalism b uncritical treatment of citizens and non citizens as binary categories and c problematic parcelling of group specific rights with citizenship rights Drawing on the case of Singapore as an illustrative example where temporary labour migrants are culturally stereotyped socioeconomically disenfranchised and denied access to rights accorded only to citizens Teo argues that understandings of multiculturalism need to be expanded and adjusted to include a fluidity of identities spectrum of rights and shared experiences of marginalisation among citizens and non citizens Civic Multiculturalism in Singapore will be of interest to students and scholars of multiculturalism critical citizenship studies migration studies political theory and postcolonial studies Empire, Incorporated Philip J. Stern, 2023-05-16 Brilliant ambitious and often surprising A remarkable contribution to the current global debate about Empire and a small masterpiece of research and conceptual reimagining William Dalrymple author of The Anarchy The East India Company Corporate Violence and the Pillage of an Empire An award winning historian places the corporation more than the Crown at the heart of British colonialism arguing that companies built and governed global empire raising questions about public and private power that were just as troubling four hundred years ago as they are today Across four centuries from Ireland to India the Americas to Africa and Australia British colonialism was above all the business of corporations Corporations conceived promoted financed and governed overseas expansion making claims over territory and peoples while ensuring that British and colonial society were invested quite literally in their ventures Colonial companies were also relentlessly controversial frequently in debt and prone to failure The corporation was well suited to overseas expansion not because it was an inevitable juggernaut but because like empire itself it was an elusive contradiction public and private person and society subordinate and autonomous centralized and diffuse immortal and precarious national and cosmopolitan a legal fiction with very real power Breaking from traditional histories in which corporations take a supporting role by doing the dirty work of sovereign states in exchange for commercial monopolies Philip Stern argues that corporations took the lead in global expansion and administration Whether in sixteenth century Ireland and North America or the Falklands in the early 1980s corporations were key players And as Empire Incorporated makes clear venture colonialism did not cease with the end of empire Its legacies continue to raise questions about corporate power that are just as relevant today as they were 400 years ago Challenging conventional wisdom about where power is held on a global scale Stern complicates the supposedly firm distinction between private enterprise and the state offering a new history of the British Empire as well as a new history of the corporation

British Fascism After the Holocaust Joe Mulhall, 2020-10-21 This book explores the policies and ideologies of a number of individuals and groups who attempted to relaunch fascist antisemitic and racist politics in the wake of World War II and the Holocaust Despite the leading architects of fascism being dead and the newsreel footage of Jewish bodies being pushed into mass graves seared into societal consciousness fascism survived World War II and though changed survives to this day Britain was the country that stood alone against fascism but it was no exception This book treads new historical ground and shines a light onto the most understudied period of British fascism whilst simultaneously adding to our understanding of the evolving ideology of fascism the persistent nature of antisemitism and the blossoming of Britain's anti immigration movement This book will primarily appeal to scholars and students with an interest in the history of fascism antisemitism and the Holocaust racism immigration and postwar Britain

The Postwar Legacy of Appeasement R. Gerald Hughes, 2014-01-16 Focusing on the Cold War and the post Cold War eras R Gerald Hughes explores the continuing influence of Appeasement on British foreign policy and re evaluates the relationship between British society and Appeasement both as historical memory and as a foreign policy process The Postwar Legacy of Appeasement explores the reaction of British policy makers to the legacies of the era of Appeasement the memory of Appeasement in public opinion and the media and the use of Appeasement as a motif in political debate regarding threats faced by Britain in the post war era Using many previously unpublished archival sources this book clearly demonstrates that many of the core British beliefs and cultural norms that had underpinned the Chamberlainite Appeasement of the 1930s persisted in the postwar period

The Learning Rainforest:
Great Teaching in Real Classrooms Tom Sherrington, 2017-10-23 The Learning Rainforest is an attempt to capture various different elements of our understanding and experience of teaching It is a celebration of great teaching the joy of it and the intellectual and personal rewards that teaching brings It is aimed at teachers of all kinds busy people working in complex environments with little time to spare The core of the book is a guide to making teaching both effective and manageable it provides an accessible summary of key contemporary evidence based ideas about teaching and learning and the debates that all teachers should be engaging in It s a book packed with strategies for making great teaching attainable in the context of real schools The Learning Rainforest metaphor is an attempt to capture various different elements of our understanding and experience of teaching Tom s ideas about what constitutes great teaching are drawn from his experiences as a teacher and a school leader over the last 30 years alongside everything he has read and all the debates he s engaged with during that time An underlying theme of this book is that a career in teaching is a process of continual personal development and professional learning as is engaging in fundamental debates rage on about the kind of education we value As you meet each new class and move from school to school your perspectives shift your sense of what seems to work adjusts to each new context In writing this book Tom is trying to capture some of the journey he s been on He has learned that it is ok to change your mind More than that sometimes it is simply necessary to get your head out of the sand to change direction to admit your mistakes

European Yearbook of International Economic Law 2015 Christoph Herrmann,Markus Krajewski,Jörg Philipp Terhechte,2015-07-04 This sixth volume 2015 of the European Yearbook of International Economic Law puts a particular emphasis on non tariff barriers NTBs to trade and the world trade order With the steady reduction of tariff rates since the GATT 47 came into force focus in recent years has been on the vast and complex landscape of non tariff barriers to trade States as well as scholars seemingly struggle with the multitude of measures pooled under this expression as there is no single acknowledged definition of the term and its relation to the term non tariff measures remains equally blurred Particularly in practice and on a multilateral level there appears to be some awkwardness when it comes to coping with NTBs since multilateral trade rules seem to be in conflict with national regulatory autonomy in the pursuit of policy objectives In part one this volume sheds light on the problems of non tariff barriers to trade that arise in various fields Part two focuses on regional integration with an emphasis on relations between East Asia and the European Union In this regard the authors outline the trade and investment relations between the European Union and East Asia including Japan Korea and Singapore Part three offers an overview of recent institutional developments in WIPO ICSID WTO and WTO jurisprudence Part four includes book reviews of recent works in the field of international economic law and part five introduces a new section on publications in the field of international economic law that were released in 2013 and 2014

Four Hundred Years of Shakespeare's First Folio Thomas Hubeart,2025-08-12 Shakespeare s First Folio has become one of the most famous books of all time but does not stand alone it followed Ben Jonson s trailblazing publication of his own Workes a few years earlier and was closely emulated in 1647 by the so called Beaumont and Fletcher folio In Four Hundred Years the story of all three folios is told including the curious afterlife of Shakespeare's with its many reproductions studies of its printing and copy Folio thefts and scholar forger J P Collier's attempt to set up a rival to its authority of his own making Also the author describes an in person encounter with an original Beaumont and Fletcher folio over three and a half centuries old and concludes with his own dramatization of how Shakespeare's Folio came to be 2 Medium Law Daithí Mac Síthigh, 2017-09-13 Why should anyone care about the medium of communication today especially when talking about media law In today's digital society many emphasise convergence and seek new regulatory approaches In Medium Law however the medium theory insights of Harold Innis Marshall McLuhan and the Toronto School of Communication are drawn upon as part of an argument that differences between media and technological definitions continue to play a crucial role in the regulation of the media Indeed Mac Síthigh argues that the idea of converged cross platform medium neutral media regulation is unattainable in practice and potentially undesirable in substance This is demonstrated through the exploration of the regulation of a variety of platforms such as films games video on demand and premium rate telephone services Regulatory areas discussed include content regulation copyright tax relief for producers and developers new online services conflicts between regulatory systems and freedom of expression This timely and topical volume will appeal to postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Law Policy Regulation Media Studies Communications History and Cultural Studies
