Nelson Mandela, Mandla Langa

November 2014 Afrikans Paper 1 Exemplar:

On Record Schalk van der Merwe, 2017-07-12 Popular Afrikaans music artists have done well in post apartheid South Africa and enjoy the enthusiastic support of loyal fans This support is fuelled by a complex set of emotions linked to being Afrikaans in a culturally pluralistic society In On Record van der Merwe investigates the interplay between popular music and the unfolding of Afrikaans culture politics from the start of the twentieth century to the present It includes a search for the earliest recorded Afrikaans songs and documents subsequent phases of music development that reflect the agency of ordinary individuals artists and listeners against a background of fundamental societal and political change It regards both the music mainstream and the alternative and reveals among other things historical cases of compliance and resistance regarding the master narrative of Afrikaner nationalist ideology the attempts by cultural entrepreneurs to establish authority over popular Afrikaans culture class tension lasting racial exclusivity protest and censorship and the post apartheid invocation of Afrikaner nostalgia and white victimhood Ultimately On Record provides an uninterrupted account and a critique of the entire history of recorded popular Afrikaans music up to the present Competition Law in South Africa Precious N. Ndlovu, 2022-06-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of competition law and its interpretation in South Africa covers every aspect of the subject the various forms of restrictive agreements and abuse of dominance prohibited by law and the rules on merger control tests of illegality filing obligations administrative investigation and enforcement procedures civil remedies and criminal penalties and raising challenges to administrative decisions Lawyers who handle transnational commercial transactions will appreciate the explanation of fundamental differences in procedure from one legal system to another as well as the international aspects of competition law Throughout the book the treatment emphasizes enforcement with relevant cases analysed where appropriate An informative introductory chapter provides detailed information on the economic legal and historical background including national and international sources scope of application an overview of substantive provisions and main notions and a comprehensive description of the enforcement system including private enforcement The book proceeds to a detailed analysis of substantive prohibitions including cartels and other horizontal agreements vertical restraints the various types of abusive conduct by the dominant firms and the appraisal of concentrations and then goes on to the administrative enforcement of competition law with a focus on the antitrust authorities powers of investigation and the right of defence of suspected companies This part also covers voluntary merger notifications and clearance decisions as well as a description of the judicial review of administrative decisions Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable time saving tool for business and legal professionals alike Lawyers representing parties with interests in South Africa will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of international and comparative competition law Leading for Change Jonathan

Jansen,2015-08-14 This book offers new theoretical ground for thinking about and transforming leadership and higher education worldwide Through an examination of the construct of intimacy and nearness including emotional spiritual psychic intellectual and physical closeness Jonathan Jansen demonstrates its power to influence positive leadership in young people He argues that sensory leadership which includes but extends beyond the power of touch represents a fresh and effective approach to progressive transformation of long divided institutions Considering richly textured narratives chapters explore complex intimacies among Black and White university students in South Africa post apartheid and in the aftermath of a major racial atrocity The stories reveal the students transformation in the process of leadership for change interweaving concepts of racism human relationships and intimacy and in turn expanding the knowledge base of social and institutional improvement This book explores how when different kinds of nearness come together in leadership change young people respond in ways that would not be possible through conventional instruments such as policy legislation and the appeal to moral sensibilities alone Leading for Change will be critical reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education educational justice higher education educational leadership and change social and or racial justice This book will also be of interest to those working in the fields of anthropology social psychology and South African contemporary politics policy and institutional practices

Dare Not Linger Nelson Mandela,Mandla Langa,2017-10-24 A memoir of Mandela s time in office as the first president of a democratic South Africa completed and expanded with his personal notes and speeches I have discovered the secret that after climbing a great hill one only finds that there are many more hills to climb I have taken a moment here to rest to steal a view of the glorious vista that surrounds me to look back on the distance I have come But I can rest only for a moment for with freedom comes responsibilities and I dare not linger for my long walk is not ended In 1994 Nelson Mandela became the first president of a democratic South Africa From the outset he was committed to serving only a single five year term During his presidency he and his government ensured that all of South Africa s citizens became equal before the law and he laid the foundation for turning a country riven by centuries of colonialism and apartheid into a fully functioning democracy Dare Not Linger is the story of Mandela s presidential years drawing heavily on the memoir he began to write as he prepared to leave office but was unable to finish Now the acclaimed South African writer Mandla Langa has completed the task using Mandela s unfinished draft detailed notes that Mandela made as events were unfolding and a wealth of unseen archival material With a prologue by Mandela s widow Gra Machel the result is a vivid and often inspirational account of Mandela s presidency and the creation of a new democracy It tells the story of a country in transition and the challenges Mandela faced as he strove to make his vision for a liberated South Africa a reality Underneath the history that has been made there is a human being who chose hope over fear progress over the prisons of the past Even as he became a legend to know the man Nelson Mandela is to respect him even more Barack Obama A rare human being who in freeing himself of his demons also became free to give his extraordinarily leadership to his country and the world Bill Clinton A critically important document as the principal firsthand record of Mandela's tumultuous time in office and the often ingenious measures he took to bring about peace the book contains many such practical lessons in governance Essential to students of Mandela's political career as well as of modern African history Kirkus Reviews The African Mother Tongue and Mathematical Ideas Abdul Karim Bangura, 2020-06-02 This book by renowned scholar Dr Abdul Karim Bangura combines linguistics and mathematics to show how and why African centred mathematical ideas can be a driving force in Africa's development efforts Bangura explores the concept that Africa has been the centre of the History of Mathematics for thousands of years as the civilizations that emerged across the continent developed contributions which would enrich both ancient and modern understanding of nature through mathematics However scholars and other professionals working in the field of mathematics education in Africa have identified a plethora of issues in carrying out their tasks This is highlighted by one of the most compelling arguments in the book which is that a major reason for these problems is the fact that the African mother tongues has been greatly neglected in the teaching of mathematics in the continent Bangura asserts that a change has to be made in order for Africa to benefit from the exceptional opportunities mathematics offer showing that even if there is a great body of work connecting linguistics and mathematics few analyses have been performed on the link between African languages and mathematics and the ones that have been made are not theoretically grounded on linguistics Thus the book begins by identifying the objects of study of linguistics and mathematics and delineates which ones they have in common Next since the object of study of linguistics is language the nine design features of language are employed to examine each of the objects as it pertains to African languages After that mathematical ideas of sustainability and those of tipping points are suggested as means to help Africa's development efforts The Bloomsbury Handbook of Popular Music and Youth Culture Andy Bennett, 2022-12-29 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Popular Music and Youth Culture provides a comprehensive and fully up to date overview of key themes and debates relating to the academic study of popular music and youth culture While this is a highly popular and rapidly expanding field of research there currently exists no single source reference book for those interested in this topic The handbook is comprised of 32 original chapters written by leading authors in the field of popular music and youth culture and covers a range of topics including theory method historical perspectives genre audience media globalization ageing and generation South African Language Rights Monitor 2011 / Suid-Afrikaanse Taalregtemonitor 2011 Johan Lubbe, Theodorus du Plessis, 2016-01-05 The SALRM 2011 provides a rich source of information on a range of language related subjects A prominent issue remains the changing of street and place names including the Pretoria Tshwane and Louis Trichardt Makhado sagas Language in education remains a thorny issue as medium of instruction at school and tertiary level and the proposal that passing an African language should be a requirement in order to obtain a tertiary degree in South Africa In terms of language legislation the draft version of the National Language Act was proposed The language of record in courts
