The Routledge Companion to the Contemporary Musical Jessica Sternfeld, Elizabeth L. Wollman, 2019-08-16 The Routledge Companion to the Contemporary Musical is dedicated to the musical's evolving relationship to American culture in the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries In the past decade and a half international scholars from an ever-widening number of disciplines and specializations have been actively contributing to the interdisciplinary field of musical theater studies Musicals have served not only to mirror the sociopolitical, economic and cultural tenor of the times but have helped shape and influence it in America and across the globe a genre that may seem at first glance light-hearted and escapist serves also as a bold commentary on society Forty-four essays examine the contemporary musical as an ever-shifting product of an ever-changing culture This volume sheds new light on the American musical as a thriving contemporary performing arts genre one that could have died out in the post-Tin Pan Alley era but instead has managed to remain culturally viable and influential in part by newly embracing a series of complex contradictions At present the American musical is a live, localized, old-fashioned genre that has simultaneously developed into an increasingly globalized, tech-savvy, intensely mediated mass entertainment form Similarly as it has become increasingly international in its scope and appeal the stage musical has also become more firmly rooted to Broadway the idea, if not the place and thus branded as a quintessentially American entertainment

it reviews some of the different strategies TikTokers apply to learn how to use the application and successfully develop their performances Berm dez explores how performers move from being ordinary users to becoming TikTokers developing and performing an identity he calls TikTok Persona Moreover he discusses how some TikTok practices can and have occurred across multiple interconnected platforms and he examines how localities are articulated and negotiated in these contexts Berm dez argues for an understanding of musicking as a multimedia practice that different actors create and experience individually in everyday synchronous and asynchronous physical and digital situations The so called TikTokers create a sense of identity and community through their performances This study suggests that a digital performance can be aside from a representation of reality an integral part of it serving as a fundamental space for constructing and performing identity
