Persuasion Reception And Responsibility

James William Neuliep

Persuasion Reception And Responsibility:

Persuasion Charles U. Larson, 2001 The new edition of a textbook that examines how people receive and interpret persuasion in advertising politics popular culture and the mass media The author discusses persuasion theory research ethics symbols nonverbal communication and cultural and psychological approaches to persuasion Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Persuasion Charles U. Larson, 2000-04 Larson helps students become consumers of persuasion The text presents persuasion through the examination of various aspects of popular culture politics mass media advertising and the information superhighway as they exemplify and teach critical theories of persuasion Its focus on language and focus on critical thinking are combined with readability and current verbal and visual examples of persuasion in action Woven throughout this framework coverage of persuasion theory research and ethics is consistently and repeatedly tied back to the theme of the book: developing students to be critical consumers of all forms of persuasion

Communication in the Church Thomas G. Kirkpatrick,2016-09-29 Communication is integral to the mission of the church but it can go awry in myriad ways both obvious and subtle Communication in the Church helps congregations create healthier ways for their members to relate to one another for greater personal and congregational success The book offers practical guidelines to help readers become more effective in how they build relationships lead meetings experience trust practice forgiveness use power and bridge cultures Communication in the Church distills the latest social science research for readers including clergy lay leaders continuing education planners students scholars and others Each chapter includes real life scenarios sensible guidelines practical applications and suggestions for further learning This book aims to help readers communicate more effectively from leading more engaging and productive meetings to preventing or addressing communication breakdowns

The Public Relations of Everything Robert E. Brown,2014-10-30 The public relations of everything takes the radical position that public relations is a profoundly different creature than a generation of its scholars and teachers have portrayed it Today it is clearly no longer limited if it ever has been to the management of communication in and between organizations Rather it has become an activity engaged in by everyone and for the most basic human reasons as an act of self creation self expression and self protection The book challenges both popular dismissals and ill informed repudiations of public relations as well as academic and classroom misconceptions In the age of digitization and social media everyone with a smart phone Twitter and Facebook accounts and the will and skill to use them is in the media The PR of everything the ubiquitousness of public relations takes a perspective that is less concerned with ideas of communication and information than with experience and drama a way of looking at public relations inside out upside down and from a micro rather than a macro level Based on a combination of the research of PR practice and critical thinking analysis of theory and founded in the author s extensive corporate experience this book will be invaluable reading for scholars and practitioners alike in Public Relations Communications and Social Media

Finding the Plot Roger Standing,2012-03-16 Preaching at its best is truth on fire The real quality of this book is that it has been created from the author s own experience of the local pastorate and is concerned with practical insights and realities I warmly recommend it David Coffey Moderator of the Free Churches and General Secretary of the Baptist Union For some the phrase finding the plot suggests a stroll through a graveyard which is much like their view of preaching But Roger Standing uses the phrase to describe narrative preaching an approach that helps preachers accomplish their essential task to raise the dead Marshall Shelley Vice President Christianity Today International and editor of Leadership This book from a seasoned practitioner and an able thinker will provide the signposts required by many either for transforming their preaching style in mid career or for setting off on the right foot Nigel G Wright Principal of Spurgeon s College London Roger Standing breezily shares his enthusiasm for narrative preaching He combines theory about narrative and its cultural relevance with practical advice and preaching examples A helpful stimulus to any preacher to branch out into narrative preaching Michael Quicke Charles Koller Professor of Preaching and Communications
