Report of the Expert Advisory Group on Anti-Corruption, Transparency, and Integrity in Latin America and the Caribbean Eduardo Engel, Delia Ferreira Rubio, Daniel Kaufmann, Armando Lara Yaffar, Jorge Londoño Saldarriaga, Beth Simone Noveck, Mark Pieth, Susan Rose-Ackerman, 2018-11-19 Recent corruption scandals have shown the negative effects that corruption may have in countries around the world including those of the Latin American and Caribbean region The Inter American Development Bank has therefore convened an independent group of experts composed by eight governance and anti corruption scholars and practitioners to identify innovative and effective approaches to combat corruption in the region Drawing on the members decades of experience this report analyzes the key features of corruption in the region and proposes an ambitious agenda toward more systemic transformation The report targets a series of measures aimed at strengthening the rule of law and public institutions addressing state capture and helping to meet citizens aspirations for sustainable and inclusive development Hence the report recommends a multi layered approach that requires collective action by governments the private sector civil society and international institutions to tackle the roots of corruption and capture through global regional and domestic initiatives

Fraud Investigation Reports in Practice Petter Gottschalk, 2022-10-19 Investigation reports are written by fraud examiners after completion of internal reviews in client organizations when there was suspicion of financial wrongdoing Fraud examiners are expected to answer questions regarding what happened when it happened how it happened and why This book presents a number of case studies of investigation reports by fraud examiners offering a framework for studying the report as well as insights into convenience of fraud The case studies including KPMG and PwC focus on two important subjects First convenience themes are identified for each case Themes derive from the theory of convenience where fraud is a result of financial motives organizational opportunities and personal willingness for deviant behaviors Second review maturity is identified for each case Review maturity derives from a stages of growth model where the investigation is assigned a level of maturity based on explicit criteria The book provides useful insights towards approaching fraud examinations to enable better understanding of the rational explanations for corporate fraud The book is framed from the perspective of private policing which contextualizes how investigation reports are examined This book is a valuable resource for scholars and upper level students researching and studying auditing and investigation work in the corporate and public sectors Business and management as well as criminal justice scholars and students will learn from the case studies how to frame a white collar crime incident by application of convenience theory and how to evaluate a completed internal investigation by fraud examiners
