My Personal Journey

At this point in my life, the last thing I expected to do was to have the courage to follow my lifelong dream of being in the healthcare profession as an Occupational Therapist Assistant. But, a heartfelt presence remained within me when I first became introduced to this field as a young woman working at a hospital. There was also a calling to assist individuals and contribute to their care and recovery in their daily lives that persisted throughout my life. Being in a position of making a difference in the lives of others is an extraordinary privilege that I do not take for granted. The dream of being part of this profession was put on hold but never forgotten, when my educational pursuits led me in another direction as an Elementary School Teacher where helping at risk students reach their fullest potential intellectually, emotionally, physically, and socially was both challenging and rewarding. My career for the past 8 years has been that of a Certified Elementary Teacher with a specialization in Bilingual Education in Spanish and English as a Second Language. I have been fortunate in this manner because I have taught underserved children in a lower socioeconomic school who are at risk of failing due to their classification of being English Language Learners. And for the past three years, I have enjoyed being the PreKindergarten Bilingual Teacher for these exceptional children and made lasting friendships with the staff and parents at this school.

Life-Cycle Performance of Structures and Infrastructure Systems in Diverse Environments Chun-Qing Li, Dan M. Frangopol, 2025-07-14 Life Cycle Performance of Structures and Infrastructure Systems in Diverse Environments contains the lectures and papers presented at the Ninth International Symposium on Life Cycle Civil Engineering IALCCE 2025 Melbourne Australia 15-19 July 2025. This book includes the full papers of 228 contributions presented at IALCCE 2025 including the Fazlur R Khan Lecture, seven Keynote Lectures, and 220 technical papers. The papers cover recent advances and cutting edge research in the field of life cycle civil engineering including emerging concepts, new theories, and innovative applications related to life cycle design, assessment, inspection, monitoring, repair, maintenance, rehabilitation, and management of structures and infrastructure systems under uncertainty. Major topics covered include life cycle carbon assessment of civil infrastructure systems, life cycle design and assessment for structures and infrastructure systems, life cycle management of civil infrastructure, whole life costing, life cycle risk analysis, and optimization of civil infrastructure, and life cycle digital tools for civil engineering, among others. This open access book provides both an up-to-date overview of the field of life cycle civil engineering and significant contributions to the process of making more rational decisions to mitigate the life cycle risk and improve the life cycle safety, reliability, resilience, and sustainability of structures and infrastructure systems exposed to diverse environments in a changing climate for the purpose of enhancing the welfare of society. It will serve as a valuable reference to all concerned with life cycle of civil engineering systems including students, researchers, practitioners, consultants, contractors, decision makers, and representatives of managing bodies and public authorities from all branches of civil engineering.

A Chinese Perspective on Teaching and Learning Betty C. Eng, 2012-01-25 Bringing together educators from a range of backgrounds: psychology, sociology, social work, counseling, and teaching, this volume shows how Asian cultural values and beliefs can provide a lens through which to understand and envision how curriculum and pedagogy can be creatively adapted, not only in a local Chinese classroom context but in a global context as well.

Entrepreneurship and Context Friederike Welter, 2019 This book identifies Friederike Welter's key contribution to entrepreneurship research over recent decades and shows how her work is contextualised in time and place. The book gives a differentiated understanding of entrepreneurship and contexts, celebrating diversity as well as complexity.

The Mobile Learning Voyage - From Small Ripples to Massive Open Waters Tom H. Brown, Herman J. van der Merwe, 2015-10-14 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Mobile and Contextual Learning mLearn 2015 held in a cruise ship leaving from and arriving to Venice, Italy, in October 2015. The 22 revised full papers and 6 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 81 submissions. The papers deal with the topics related to the theme of the conference: The mobile learning voyage from small ripples to massive open waters. The conference theme paid tribute to the developments that brought mobile learning from its infancy steps in the early 2000s to maturity in 2015 while simultaneously political significance of South African sport placing it in the context of the development of sport both elsewhere on the African continent and internationally The history of sport has seen significant international growth over the past few decades For the most part however the history of sport in Africa has remained largely untraced By detailing the way in which sport s development in South Africa overlapped with major socio political processes on the wider African continent this volume seeks to narrow the gap This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport

“That’s how we do it...we treat them all the same” Fiona Cowdell,2014-09-01 The prevalence of dementia is increasing rapidly as the population ages and there is a steady rise in people with dementia being admitted to acute hospitals Media coverage of the care received by people with dementia in acute hospitals is almost wholly negative The purpose of this book is to provide a detailed description of what the experience both positive and negative is really like from the perspectives of patients lay carers and health and social care staff and to propose a model for improving care The book comprises four elements A literature review sets person focused research in the context of dementia research as a whole Research illuminates the experiences of acute hospital care for people with dementia through ethnographic description and narratives To improve practice a development model that engages staff on a cognitive and emotional level based on the philosophies of confluent education and situated learning is explained Finally the strands are drawn together to demonstrate that people with dementia even those at an advanced stage and with superimposed physical illness can be engaged in research that is both ethical and meaningful Improvements in practice are possible and they need to be underpinned by a belief in the personhood of staff as well as that of patients Areas for further research and practice development in this vital subject are identified

International Reflections on Approaches to Mental Health Social Work Malcolm Golightley,Gloria Kirwan,2018-04-19 Growing out of an interest in exploring the contemporary contexts and practices related to mental health social work across the world this book provides a range of insights into the social factors which contribute sometimes quite significantly to the emergence of mental health problems for individuals and even whole communities The range and scope of mental health social work is highlighted through the different accounts of therapeutic work advocacy support and rehabilitation But this collection goes further and also provides the reader with critical analyses of social work practice and social policies in certain contexts thus inviting the reader to a more reflective consideration of the value of mental health perspectives in social work in general Taken as a whole the collection suggests that social work engages with the field of mental health in diverse creative and very reflective ways yet is always focused on the needs and rights of those for whom problems with mental health can be personally challenging and often disempowering This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Social Work Practice

Climate Uncertainty and Risk Judith Curry,2023-06-06 World leaders have made a forceful statement that climate change is the greatest challenge facing humanity in the 21st century However little progress has been made in implementing policies to address climate change In Climate Uncertainty and Risk eminent climate scientist Judith Curry shows how we can break this gridlock This book helps us rethink the climate change problem the risks we are facing and how we can respond to these challenges Understanding the deep uncertainty surrounding the climate change problem helps us to better assess the risks This book shows how uncertainty and disagreement can be part of the decision making process It provides a road map for formulating pragmatic solutions Climate Uncertainty and Risk is essential reading for those concerned about the environment professionals dealing with climate change and our national leaders

Biography and Education Michael Erben,2005-08-12 Over recent years biographical studies have gained an increasingly important place in academic study The two are inextricably linked Education uses biography in teaching and in biography education features strongly as a formative stage in personal development This book elaborates on the analytical work that has drawn attention to biography and education and seeks to expand the understanding of lives in educational contexts Mainstream sociology has been quick to embrace this treatment of individuals as biographical appearances but it is even more relevant in the field of education

The Art and Science of Dance/Movement Therapy Sharon Chaiklin,Hilda Wengrower,2015-08-27 The Art and Science of Dance Movement Therapy offers both a broad understanding and an in depth view of how and where dance therapy can be used to produce change The chapters go beyond the basics that characterize much of the literature on dance movement therapy and each of the topics covered offers a theoretical perspective followed by case studies that emphasize the techniques used in the varied settings Several different theoretical points of view are presented in the chapters illuminating the different paths through which dance can be approached in therapy

Combining Experimentation and Theory Enric Trillas,Piero P. Bonissone,Luis Magdalena,Janusz Kacprzyk,2012-01-13 The unexpected and premature passing away of Professor Ebrahim H Abe Mamdani on January 22 2010 was a big shock to the scientific community to all his friends and colleagues around the world and to his close relatives Professor Mamdani was a remarkable figure in the academic world as he contributed to so many areas of science and technology Of great relevance are his latest thoughts and ideas on the study of language and its handling by computers The fuzzy logic community is particularly indebted to Abe Mamdani 1941 2010 who in 1975 in his famous paper An Experiment in Linguistic Synthesis with a Fuzzy Logic Controller jointly written with his student Sedrak Assilian introduced the novel idea of fuzzy control This was an elegant engineering approach to the modeling and control of complex processes for which mathematical models were unknown or too difficult to build yet they could effectively and efficiently be controlled by human operators This ground breaking idea has found innumerable applications and can be considered as one of the main factors for the proliferation and adoption of fuzzy logic technology Professor Mamdani s own life and vital experience are illustrative of his never surrendering attitude while facing adversaries which is normal for a person proposing any novel solution and represent a great example for everybody His subtle sense of humor his joy for life and his will to critically help people especially young people were characteristics deeply appreciated by all the people who enjoyed and benefited from his friendship and advice This book constitutes a posthumous homage to Abe Mamdani It is a collection of original papers related in some way to his works ideas and vision and especially written by researchers directly acquainted with him or with his work The underlying goal of this book will be fulfilled if in the very spirit of Mamdani s legacy the papers will trigger a scientific or philosophical debate on the issues covered or contribute to a cross fertilization of ideas in the various fields

The Gift of the Middle Tanana Gerad M. Smith,2022-02-11 The Middle Tanana Valley in Alaska remains one of the most important regions of the continent for archaeological research In The Gift of the Middle Tanana Dene Pre Colonial History in the Alaskan Interior Gerad Smith explores the history ethnography and archaeological record of the Native people in this region during the late Holocene Smith creates an interpretive framework informed by Alaskan Native traditions focusing on traditional place names and the deep play rituals of reciprocity Smith sets forth the case that the local themes and oral traditions of the potlatch are better understood not as singular ceremonial events but as a mechanism of regional social cohesion that dictated everyday life The Gift of the Middle Tanana illustrates how the role of reciprocal deep play shaped a traditional society that has lasted over a thousand years
