Research Papers On Christianity:

Christianity and Social Scientific Perspectives on Sport Tom Gibbons, Stuart Braye, 2020-06-29 There has been a dramatic increase in academic research activity and practical initiatives on the topic of sports and Christianity and its cultural significance during the past decade The Faculty of Health and Life Sciences at York St John University York UK hosted the Inaugural Global Congress on Sports and Christianity IGCSC 24 28th August 2016 in collaboration with the Bible Society at which there were 180 delegates from 22 countries in attendance For the area of sports studies the social scientific study of sport there was a thematic strand at the congress titled Christian sociological perspectives on sport from which a special edition of the journal Sport in Society partially emanated This book is based upon this journal special edition The papers selected for inclusion in the special edition were purposely eclectic in order to demonstrate the diversity of current research occurring in the area of Christianity and social scientific perspectives on sport The goal was to bridge divisions between various social science disciplines and theology or religious studies through varied novel and interesting explorations of sport in its various forms We hope this collection inspires further studies into this area The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue in Sport in Society

A Study Companion to Introduction to the History of Christianity Beth Wright, 2013-11-01 The Study Companion is a valuable additional resource for introductory courses in church history that use Tim Dowley's popular Introduction to the History of Christianity Packed with the essential primary readings for introductory courses in the history of Christianity the Study Companion also provides biographical information thematic explorations of historical themes that are important today as well as a host of other pedagogical tools that will enrich the students experience

The Social Scientific Study of Exorcism in Christianity Giuseppe Giordan, Adam Possamai, 2020-06-01 This book presents an academic analysis of exorcism in Christianity It not only explores the crisis and drama of a single individual in a fight against demonic possession but also looks at the broader implications for the society in which the possessed lives In recognition of this coverage includes case studies from various geographical areas in Europe North and South America and Oceania The contributors explore the growing significance of the rite of exorcism both in its more structured format within traditional Christian religions as well as in the less controlled and structured forms in the rites of deliverance within Neopentecostal movements They examine theories on the interaction between religion magic and science to present new and groundbreaking data on exorcism The fight against demonic possession underlines the way in which changes within the religious field such as the rediscovery of typical practices of popular religiosity challenge the expectations of the theory of secularization This book argues that if possession is a threat to the individual and to the equilibrium of the social order the ritual of exorcism is able to re-establish a balance and an order through the power of the exorcist This does not happen in a social vacuum but in a consumer culture where religious groups market themselves against other faiths This book appeals to researchers in the field

European Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa

Ulrich Berner, Christoph Boehinger, 2004 This volume comprises case studies of five centuries of European encounters with and imaginations of Africa encompassing her triple religious heritage African Traditional Religions Christianity and Islam The introductory chapters outline the challenges and present overviews some of them also analyze the early accounts of European travelers and missionaries The following contributions examine the lasting legacy of the European Enlightenment in employing an ambivalent language of human equality and universalism while in actual fact consigning Africa to an inferior position It has been difficult for western scholars to divorce themselves wholly from the perceptions thus established However there have been quite different approaches This is indicated in the papers discussing the role and impact of influential European academics scholars of religion theologians historians and social scientists during the colonial and postcolonial period Other contributions examine specific institutional centers of African religious studies in Europe The concluding chapters critically assess European approaches and their use for the study of religion in Africa from an African perspective

Christianity and Transforming States

David Emmanuel Singh, 2024-10 Christians can be both victims and victimizers and herein lies this volume's unique contribution Offering a two-sided approach this book examines what it means to live as a Christian minority both in non

Christian societies and in societies where other forms of Christianity are dominant Psychology & Christianity Integration
Daryl H. Stevenson, Brian E. Eck, Peter C. Hill, 2007 Religion and Societies Carlo Caldarola, 2011-06-01 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series The Status of Religion and the Public Benefit in Charity Law Barry W. Bussey, 2020-02-29 The Status of Religion and the Public Benefit in Charity Law is an apologetic for maintaining the presumption of public benefit for the charitable category advancement of religion in democratic countries within the English common law tradition In response to growing academic and political pressure to reform charity law including recurring calls to remove tax exemptions granted to religious charities the scholars in this volume analyse the implications of legislative and legal developments in Canada the UK Australia New Zealand and South Africa In the process they also confront more fundamental sociological or philosophical questions on the very nature and role of religion in a secular society that would deny any space for religious communities outside their houses of worship In other words this book is concerned with the place of religion and religious institutions in contemporary society It represents a series of concerns about the proper role of the state in relation to the differing beliefs of citizens some of which will quite rightly manifest in actions to benefit the wider society This debate then naturally engages with broader issues related to secularism civic engagement and liberal democratic freedoms Religious Studies in Alberta Ronald Neufeldt, 2006-01-01 This first volume on the state of the art in religious studies in Canada offers a description and critique of the field in the colleges universities and secondary schools in Alberta Among the findings philosophical theological and textual approaches to the study of religion predominate to the relative neglect of methodologies employed in fields such as sociology and anthropology the quality and quantity of published research is significant but focusses on Christian studies some interdisciplinary study is being carried on and benefits religious studies as well as other fields religious studies scholars in Alberta have a relatively high public profile but their exercise of public responsibility is time consuming and can jeopardize career advancement in view of wide spread religious illiteracy among students descriptive courses must not be neglected in favour of analytical ones An appendix listing courses offered in the schools surveyed concludes the volume Christianity, Conflict, and Renewal in Australia and the Pacific , 2016-06-21 Cultural expressions of Christianity show great diversity around the globe While scholarship has tended to consider charismatic practices in distinct geographical contexts this volume advances the anthropology of Christianity through ethnographically rich comparative insights from across the

Australia Pacific region Christianity Conflict and Renewal in Australia and the Pacific presents new perspectives on the performative dynamics of Christian belief conflict and renewal Addressing experiences of cultural and spiritual renewal contributors reveal how tensions can arise between spiritual and political expressions of culture and identity opening up alternative spaces for spiritual realization and religious change These local processes further mobilize responses of individuals and groups to state forces and political reforms in turn influencing the shape of translocal and transnational Christian practices Contributors are Diane Austin Broos John Barker Alison Dundon Yannick Fer Kirsty Gillespie Jessica Hardin Rodolfo Maggio Fiona Magowan Gwendoline Malogne Fer Debra McDougall Joel Robbins Carolyn Schwarz and John Taylor
