Macbeth Essay, Research Paper

Macbeth s ambitious ends in his life were the chief ground for the devastation of his kingdom. His aspirations were selfish and evil, and he met his fate at the terminal of the drama. Lady Macbeth is willing to give all she has for her hubby, and the result for her is finally non good. Bing ambitious is normally a good quality for one to hold, but when one is excessively ambitious or has malicious purposes, one will finally lose sight of those ends, and will breakdown.

Macbeth s program for deriving kingship right from the beginning was evil in nature. He figured the lone manner he would go male monarch was to kill Duncan, the present King of Scotland. This was a really narcissistic move by Macbeth. He was traveling to kill the male monarch of his ain state for his ain interest. She becomes ridden with guilt, and the concluding consequence is insanity. She is invariably seeking to pass over off the blood of Duncan, which she got on her custodies, even when she is asleep. She keeps live overing the events that took topographic point the dark of the slaying. She was non able to kill Duncan, because she said that Duncan looked like her male parent while he slept, and that she would non be able to kill person who looked like her male parent. It was as though she could non forgive herself for what she did.

During the actions of the drama, Macbeth and his married woman contrary functions. When the drama starts out as she is the ambitious one, and he is more on the cautious side. As the drama unfolds, Macbeth takes on a stronger character and becomes the more ambitious 1. He does non mention to his married woman any longer for the class of action that he takes. He begins to kill all people who might interfere with the security of his kingship. The over aspiration of Macbeth and Lady Macbeth was the ground for their dislocation and loss of po
