A Noble But Onerous Duty Francis K. Sang, 2013 From a humble beginning as a son of employees in white settlers farms in the central Rift Valley Dr Francis K Sang overcame many odds to rise through the ranks of the Kenya Police and become the 4th Kenyan Director of the Criminal Investigation Department He served in this position for 4 years before he was transferred to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs after the changeover of government in Kenya at the end of 2002 He was tasked with the establishment of the Nairobi Secretariat to coordinate issues to do with small arms in the region This he did and later helped transform the secretariat into the Regional Centre for Small Arms RECSA a regional inter governmental body that coordinates activities aimed at controlling and reducing the proliferation of small arms and light weapons in the Eastern Africa Great Lakes and Horn of Africa region and bordering states In this autobiography he relates his experiences from the difficult circumstances surrounding his birth and childhood his struggles to get an education in spite of the many obstacles that he faced and his experiences in the police force particularly in the Criminal Investigation Department CID during the tenure of the 2nd President of Kenya Daniel arap Moi He also relates his experiences after the NARC Government took over in 2002 and sent most senior security officers in the former government packing either on retirement or on transfer to other less prestigious positions He further relates how through determination he has been able to achieve his academic dreams which had been deferred earlier in his life owing to financial constraints culminating in the acquisition of a PhD late in life He also speaks about the role his family has played in enabling him to achieve all he has in his life Reflecting on his long journey that has brought him to the place where he is today the author also gives a number of insights on his work and life This autobiography should serve as interesting reading to the general public as well as to persons serving in the disciplined forces considering that it is the first from amongst persons that have served in the police force and risen through the ranks to the very top
