Performance Projections Film And The Body In Action:

Performance Projections Stephen Barber, 2014-11-15 Film does far more than document performance it actively recreates the time and space of performance and overhauls its rapport with the viewer's eye and body The first book to look in depth at the intersection of film and performance in relation to issues and theories of space Performance Projections travels from the origins of film in Europe and the United States to the world of digital media today exploring the dynamic relationship between these vitally connected ideas Drawing from a wide range of examples including filmic depictions of German and Japanese and Chinese performance art and street cultures Stephen Barber argues that the act of filming has the power to draw distinctively performative dimensions out of unruly human gatherings such as riots and political protests while also accentuating the outlandish and aberrant aspects of performance Spanning the history of film Barber moves from performance in film's formative years such as Edward Muybridge's work in the 1880s to contemporary performance artworks for example Rabih Mroué's investigations of the often lethal camera phone filming of snipers in Syrian cities Proposing that the future conception of filmed performance needs to be radically expanded in response to the transformations of digital film cultures Performance Projections is a critical addition to the literature on both film and art history

Performance art and revolution Sanja Perovic, 2023-10-31 Stuart Brisley is a pioneering multi media and performance artist who developed performance art as a form of social action in the 1960s and 1970s This book assesses his seminal influence on British art through a focus on his lifelong engagement with the histories and imaginaries of revolution Linking revolutionary history with material from a critical dialogue established with Brisley over the last decade the book recognises Brisley's corpus as a fascinating stage for addressing important questions about the relationship of art politics and history How do we make sense of politically committed art in a contemporary context where revolution has supposedly died or is deemed impossible What can the afterlives of performance art tell us about the historical past including the promises and contradictions of revolutionary time

The Space of Sex Shelton Waldrep, 2021-05-20 As film and television become ever more focused on the pornographic gaze of the camera the human body undergoes a metamorphosis becoming both landscape and building part of an architectonic design in which the erotics of the body spread beyond the body itself to influence the design of the film or televisual shot The body becomes the mise en scène of contemporary moving imagery Opening The Space of Sex Shelton Waldrep sets up some important tropes for the book the movement between high and low art the emphasis on the body looking and framing the general intermedial and interdisciplinary methodology of the book as a whole The Space of Sex's second half focuses on how sex gender and sexuality are represented in several recent films including Paul Schrader's The Canyons 2013 Oliver Stone's Savages 2012 Steven Soderbergh's Magic Mike 2012 Lars Von Trier's Nymphomaniac 2013 and Joseph Gordon Levitt's Don Jon 2013 Each of these mainstream or independent movies and several more are examined for the ways they have attempted to absorb pornography if not the pornography industry specifically into their plot According to

Waldrep the utopian elements of seventies porn get reprocessed in a complex way in the twenty first century as both a utopian impulse the desire to have sex on the screen to re eroticize sex as something positive and lacking in shame with a mixed feeling about pornography itself with an industry that can be seen in a dystopian light In other words sex in our contemporary world still does not come without compromise Screened Stages Rachel Joseph,2024-02-28 This book is devoted to tracing the variety of ways that theatre theatricality and performance are embedded in Hollywood cinema as screened stages A screened stage is the literal or metaphorical appearance of a stage on screen When the Hollywood style emerged in cinema history it traumatically severed the entwined relationship between film and theatre The book makes the argument that cinema longs for theatre after that separation The histories of stage and screen persistently crisscross one another making their separation problematic The screened stage from the end of the nineteenth century until now offers a miniaturized version of cinema and theatre history Moments of the stage within the screen compress historical styles and movements into saturated representations on film Such examples overflow the cinematic screen into singular manifestations of presentness Screened stages uncover what it means to be simultaneously present and absent This book would be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre film dance and performance Theatre History Studies 2018, Vol. 37 Sara Freeman,2018-12-18 Theatre History Studies THS is a peer reviewed journal of theatre history and scholarship published annually since 1981 by the Mid America Theatre Conference THEATRE HISTORY STUDIES VOLUME 37 STEFAN AQUILINA Meyerhold and The Revolution A Reading through Henri Lefebvre s Theories on Everyday Life VIVIAN APPLER Shuffled Together under the Name of a Farce Finding Nature in Aphra Behn s The Emperor of the Moon KRISTI GOOD Kate Soffel s Life of Crime A Gendered Journey from Warden s Wife to Criminal Actress PETER A CAMPBELL Staging Ajax s Suicide A Historiography BRIAN E G COOK Rousing Experiences Theatre Politics and Change MEGAN LEWIS Until You See the Whites of Their Eyes Brett Bailey s Exhibit B and the Consequences of Staging the Colonial Gaze PATRICIA GABORIK Taking the Theatre to the People Performance Sponsorship and Regulation in Mussolini s Italy ILINCA TODORUT AND ANTHONY SORGE To Image and to Imagine Walid Raad Rabih Mour and the Arab Spring SHULAMITH LEV ALADGEM Where Has the Political Theatre in Israel Gone Rethinking the Concept of Political Theatre Today CHRISTINE WOODWORTH Equal Rights By All Means Beatrice Forbes Robertson s 1910 Suffrage Matinee and the Onstage Junction of the US And UK Franchise Movements LURANA DONNELLS O MALLEY Why I Wrote the Phyllis Wheatley Pageant Play Mary Church Terrell s Bicentennial Activism JULIET GUZZETTA The Lasting Theatre of Dario Fo and Franca Rame ASHLEY E LUCAS Chavez Ravine Culture Clash and the Political Project of Rewriting History NOE MONTEZ The Heavy Lifting Resisting the Obama Presidency s Neoliberalist Conceptions of the American Dream in Kristoffer Diaz s The Elaborate Entrance of Chad Deity Music and Performance During the Weimar Republic Bryan Randolph Gilliam,1994-07-21 Composers performers and audiences alike sought to negate their recent post in various ways by affirming modern technology electronic or mechanical
