The Sacred Forest Henry Kam Kah, 2015 The sacred forest is a concrete place with a rich symbolic meaning For the Laimbwe ethnic group of the North West Region of Cameroon it is the centre of the social life around which the people organize their matrilineal system Henry Kam Kah describes the origin development and the changes in matriliney as a gender construction from an insider point of view Using written material and interviews with 150 persons he shows how the system overcame all the various challenges since the 18th century especially the rejection of matriliney by the colonial powers and Christian missionaries With this study Henry Kam Kah calls into question different prejudices of a Eurocentric gender research which believes in the dominance of patriarchal structures and the decline of other gender systems under the impact of global influence and pressure Henry Kam Kah is Senior Lecturer at the Department of History of the University of Buea Cameroon

Through the Lens of Anthropology Robert J. Muckle, Laura Tubelle de González, 2016-01-01

Handbook of Methods in Cultural Anthropology H. Russell Bernard, Clarence C. Gravlee, 2014-07-08 The Handbook of Methods in Cultural Anthropology now in its second edition maintains a strong benchmark for understanding the scope of contemporary anthropological field methods Avoiding divisive debates over science and humanism the contributors draw upon both traditions to explore fieldwork in practice The second edition also reflects major developments of the past decade including the rising prominence of mixed methods the emergence of new technologies and evolving views on ethnographic writing Spanning the chain of research from designing a project through methods of data collection and interpretive analysis the Handbook features new chapters on ethnography of online communities social survey research and network and geospatial analysis Considered discussion of ethics epistemology and the presentation of research results to diverse audiences round out the volume The result is an essential guide for all scholars professionals and advanced students who employ fieldwork

Introduction to Anthropology Jennifer Hasty, David G. Lewis, Marjorie M. Snipes, 2024-09-16 Designed to meet the scope and sequence of your course Introduction to Anthropology is a four field text integrating diverse voices engaging field activities and meaningful themes like Indigenous experiences and social inequality to engage students and enrich learning The text showcases the historical context of the discipline with a strong focus on anthropology as a living and evolving field There is significant discussion of recent efforts to make the field more diverse in its practitioners in the questions it asks and in the applications of anthropological research to address contemporary challenges In addressing social inequality the text drives readers to consider the rise and impact of social inequalities based on forms of identity and difference such as gender ethnicity race and class as well as oppression and discrimination The contributors to and dangers of socioeconomic inequality are fully addressed and the role of inequality in social dysfunction disruption and change is noted This is an adaptation of Introduction to Anthropology by OpenStax You can access the textbook as pdf for free at openstax.org Minor editorial changes were made to ensure a better ebook reading experience Textbook content produced by OpenStax is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International
