A Testimony-Driven Life Astra Williams Brantley, PsyD, 2020-08-11 A Testimony Driven Life Biblical Stewardship Living Discipling Disciplers of Disciplers in an Adversity Centered World Our hearts weep with Christ and pray with Him in intercession for the saints for they are not mission ready Our hearts are grieved to agony with the Holy Spirit because not every Christian is equipped to disciple disciplers of disciplers The testimony of God the Father Who is Jesus Christ and the testimony of God the Holy Spirit Who testifies only of Jesus are not faithfully reflected in the word of our testimony So how do we inspire each and every Christian to learn submit commit to sharing their own testimony at all times in all places to encourage other Christians as well as to cause others to come to Christ How can we inspire God s people to DO THE TRUTH John 3 21 When God does a work in us or through us then we should give Him the glory by sharing of our personal testimony As spiritual beings commissioned to live out a physical existence in an adversity centered world God expects much fruit that is for us to do just as Jesus did go and make steadfast disciples capable of making disciples This is the WHAT of our obedience Our HOW is to depend on the Holy Spirit as we learn to live love serve like Christ our biblical stewardship living WHY Starting with our singular purpose a testimony driven life that pleases and glorifies God we know what will be the result discipling disciplers of disciplers but we need to understand that biblical stewardship living is HOW we get it done

Research as Development Salla Sariola, Robert Simpson, 2019-03-15 In Research as Development Salla Sariola and Bob Simpson show how international collaboration operates in a setting that is typically portrayed as resource poor and scientifically lagging Based on their long term fieldwork in Sri Lanka Sariola and Simpson bring into clear ethnographic focus the ways international scientific collaborations feature prominently in the pursuit of global health in which research operates as development and not merely for it The authors follow the design inception and practice of two clinical trials one a global health charity funded trial and the other a pharmaceutical industry sponsored trial Research as Development situates these two trials within their historical political and cultural contexts and thus counters the idea that local actors are merely passive recipients of new technical and scientific rationalities While social studies of clinical trials are beginning to be an established niche in academic writing Research as Development helps fill important gaps in the literature through its examination of clinical research situated in cultures in low income settings Research as Development is noteworthy for the way it highlights the critical and creative role that local researchers play in establishing international collaborations and making them work into locally viable forms The volume shows how these clinical and research interactions bring about changes in culture technologies and expertise in Sri Lanka contexts that have not previously been written about in any detail
