

The Crucible ACT 1 Journal Questions

Each student gets one journal question and 40 minutes to answer it in their journals. Each student should write at least 100-200 words. Page numbers should be noted in the journal entry.

1. What types of things do the people of Salem not allow their children to do that we do today? Why?
2. What is the problem with Giles Corey's thinking about his wife reading strange books?
3. Why does Abigail blame Tituba?
4. Why is Mrs. Putnam so hysterical?
5. Who does Tituba accuse and why?
5. Why does Tituba give that long speech about how the devil told her to kill Parris? What motivates her?
6. What does Parris say that shows he has heard rumors about Abigail and Proctor? How does she respond? Why does he ask?
7. Why does Ann Putnam send Ruth to Tituba? And why is Parris shocked and upset by this?
8. Rebecca Nurse understands what is really going on in this village. Why? How? Why don't Parris and Putnam listen to her?
9. Why doesn't John Proctor go to church often? What kind of trouble does this cause for him?
10. How is the argument about firewood an important symbol of what is going on, what is to come and about the character of this little community?
11. Parris accuses Proctor of being the member of a "faction" in the church. What does he mean and why is this important? Why would it be prudent that Proctor not joke about this accusation as a response?
12. Hale says that his books are "weighted with authority." What does this mean and why is it important to this story?
13. Rev. Hale knows Rebecca Nurse by reputation. He lives in Beverly, which though by our standards is close by, would have been quite a trip back then. What has he heard about her? Why is this important to the story?

existing programs Packed with practical examples and aids it is a tool trainers will keep handy and use often in their course planning and implementation This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance Emancipation Peter Kolchin,2024-09-10 In this sequel to his landmark study historian Peter Kolchin compares the transition to freedom after American emancipation with the Russian Great Reforms The two largest transitions from unfree to free labor of the many that occurred in Europe and the Americas during the nineteenth century took place in the United States and in Russia Both occurred in the 1860s and in both the former slaves and serfs strove to maximize their autonomy and freedom while the former masters worked to preserve as many of their prerogatives as possible Both were partially but only partially successful In this magisterial and long awaited work historian Peter Kolchin shows that a more radical break with the past was possible in the United States than in Russia with the Southern freedpeople coming to enjoy republican citizenship whereas Russian peasants remained subjects rather than citizens Both countries saw conservative reactions triumph in the late nineteenth century While this conservatism was common in most emancipations it was especially strong in Russia and the American South in part as a reaction against the major efforts to restructure the social order that went by the name of Reconstruction in the United States and the Great Reforms in Russia System ,1925 Democracy as Creative Practice Tom Borrup,Andrew Zitcer,2024-08-01 Democracy as Creative Practice Weaving a Culture of Civic Life offers arts based solutions to the threats to democracies around the world practices that can foster more just and equitable societies Chapter authors are artists activists curators and teachers applying creative and cultural practices in deliberate efforts to build democratic ways of working and interacting in their communities in a range of countries including the United States Australia Portugal Nepal the United Kingdom and Canada The book demonstrates how creativity is integrated in place based actions aesthetic strategies learning environments and civic processes As long time champions and observers of community based creative and cultural practices editors Tom Borrup and Andrew Zitcer elucidate work that not only responds to sociopolitical conditions but advances practice They call on artists funders cultural organizations community groups educational institutions government and others to engage in and support this work that fosters a culture of democracy This book is intended for undergraduate and graduate students in the humanities and social sciences activists funders and artists who seek to understand and effect change on local and global scales to preserve extend and improve practices of democracy Beyond Progress Hugh De Santis,1996-05-15 Argues that in a world of dwindling resources economic inequality and unremitting violence the belief in endless progress can no longer be sustained Asserts that we have arrived at a great historic divide in which the old modern order is giving way to an age of mutualism Draws on world history and the study of international relations to explore the emerging future in which new forms of social and political identity and regional associations and alignments will be needed to solve global problems Argues that mutualism will require a dramatical change in the way states international institutions corporations and local communities interact and that this transformation will be especially difficult for the United States which will have to abandon its exceptionalist identity and rejoin a world it can no longer escape
