Georgia's Historical Recipes Valerie J. Frey, 2025-05 Georgia's Historical Recipes is an exploration of our state's oldest recipes from the antebellum period through World War II as painstakingly researched by Georgia archivist Valerie J. Frey. This volume begins with a discussion of old recipes as primary sources and what they can tell us about the history and culture of their era and how to bring them to life in modern kitchens. Frey then moves into fifty sections that can be read alone yet allow readers to build an understanding of how foodways evolved over time. Some sections highlight a single recipe illustrating how changes in technology, agriculture, transportation, communication, and social patterns led to changes in Georgia kitchens. Most of the recipes are previously unpublished, waiting in archives to be rediscovered. Other sections explore our oldest cookbooks, offering biographical and cultural background information that makes them more meaningful. For the first time, Georgians have a list of the state's early cookbooks and its cooking experts. Readers will learn where to find Georgia's oldest recipes and discover many examples to whet their appetites literally and figuratively for a taste of Georgia's past.

Salt Sugar Smoke Diana Henry, 2016-11-03 This comprehensive book takes a fresh look at preserving, offering all the basic information you need but also featuring inspirational recipes from the store cupboards of the world. It covers everything from jams to cures and shows you that you don't have to have lots of kit and produce to make delicious preserves or wait forever before eating them. There are sections filled with expert advice on choosing ingredients and cooking every type of preserve, from marmalades to jellies to relishes to foods preserved in oil. All the classic recipes are included, and Diana often gives tips for how to make a version of a classic that suits your palette. For example, she includes a sweet and sticky strawberry jam, a more fruity and less sweet version, and a Swedish nearly strawberry jam which is more like a conserve and keeps in the fridge for only a couple of weeks. But this is also a treasure trove of recipes taken from the world's store cupboards. And most of them are luxuries that can be made from cheap ingredients, such as Thai spiced rhubarb relish, Alsace pear and Riesling jam, and tea-smoked trout. Many recipes will also offer alternative ingredients; for example, make sloe gin with cranberries or plums.
