Great British Bake Off Mary Berry is returning to our TVs with her brand new series Britain's Best Home Cook so indulge and discover her autobiography From the moment she came into the world two weeks early throwing her parents lives into disarray Mary has gracefully but firmly done things her own way Born in 1935 in the city of Bath Mary's childhood was a curious mix of idyllic picnics and ramblings and alarming air raids of a spirited and outdoorsy home life and a dreaded school existence All nearly cut horribly short by an almost fatal bout of polio when she was thirteen which isolated Mary in hospital away from beloved family and friends for months Recovery saw her turn to her one true passion cookery And so began a love affair that has spanned six remarkable decades from demonstrating ovens in the early 1950s to producing glossy food magazines in the 60s and 70s gradually becoming the country's most prolific and many would say best loved cookery writer Until her emergence in the 21st century as a TV sensation and style icon on the Great British Bake Off In this touching evocative and fascinating memoir we accompany Mary on her journey of nearly eighty years a life lived to the full with a wicked sense of fun and an eye for the absurd it is the life of a delightfully traditional but thoroughly modern woman
